night. last witness, gav s and en- POPULAR FIGURE dence, and adde was 20 years old HAN and out of the trap Ion. Secs., collision, and he RETIRED CIVIL SERVANT'S lla No. 1." She was seven of paris, and her TICE aged. Her husb DEATH avoid the collisi Cross-examined The death was announced during that the trap v the week of Mr. William Dillane, side, almost to Rooskagh, Newcastle West, a remargin. The po tired official of the Department of BER the occasion, as Justice (writes our Newcastle ESON. until it was str West correspondent). Member of URKE. right wheel and an old and esteemed West Limerkin Cup, which were stru rick family, deceased was formerly irse Maidnot overturn, but associated with the staff of the when the wheel Land Commission. He was later il Stakes, denied that the transferred to the Department of £2 1s. 0d. to the centre of Justice, from which he retired ditions. DOCTOR DE some years ago. There was a large al Stakes. INJU and representative attendance at the funeral from Ardagh Church £2 1s. 0d. Dr. Denis J. ditions. dence of attendir to Newcastle West Cemetery on Knight's who was sufferin Tuesday. ges, at £3 her injuries i AN APPRECIATION. ve £50 if of the left leg. Another correspondent writes:siderable pain, w The death took place at Rooska, 3 All Ages the plaster was a Newcastle West, County Limerick, than two that it was pain on the 2nd instant of William e, byes to plaster. The oth Dillane, who retired a few years two scalp wound ago from the position of Execuwas completely tion after tive Officer in the Department of back of his right Justice, Dublin, where he was held also fractured. in high esteem. Deeply religious, (8c) concussion and s he was a conspicuous figure in of the injuries, Dublin for years, in a most unobald's arm was 11 trusive way, in many charitable complained that h associations, devoting all his spare ing were impaire bs.;; r.w., time unstintingly to the wants of dent. Considerir the poor and needy and the allevthey had made iation of suffering and misery. An Dance Edmond Fitzgera Cork Road-Irish Irelander and All-Ireland penses to him v g Florrie) hurler, he was a keen follower of wife's £25. ng, most all forms of sport, and in later Dr. Michael F s of Ruby life was one of the most popular Mr. Danaher, sa rk, Limemembers of Newland's Golf Club, plaintiffs that m Harold's known to all there affectionately sidering their ag 25 yards, as "Bill" Dillane and noted for his juries they had Won by. by semibrilliant wit and gifts as a charmas possible. Von 1946 ing raconteur. His numerous To Mr. Fitzger in 30.30 00 yards, friends and admirers will sadly that the plaintiffs miss him. fered considerable on Shel-In reply to 5.08 secs., Guard Michael DEATH AT ADVANCED cs. (sort neety, said the 50 yards, AGE roughly half-a-mil er); first neety Barracks. time eight of is only also a at the time. Fro The death has occurred at an impact to where advanced age of Mr. Daniel rest was 55 feet Bishop St., Ambrose, Newcastle rack. point of impact th West, one of the town's oldest and i to stud on the grass mar most esteemed citizen (writes our perfectly to the trap was correspondent there). Deceased. from all were broken and who belonged to a very respected right wheel were family, was originally a member well as damages of the staff of the local Railway Station, and when he left that sertion of the trap. To Mr. Danah vice he was appointed a member of Cork. that there was a 60. the local Post Office outdoor staff. in the centre of He occupied that position for over was his opinion t forty years and resigned several the lorry. There years ago on reaching the age of the road. limit. A gentleman of wide reading and culture, the late Mr. FOR THE Ambrose enjoyed the esteem and Lieut Joseph Bo regard of a wide circle of friends, the lorry and seate and sympathy will be extended to side the driver said that he did the bereaved relatives, including Ton trap until the Cor Mrs. J. O'Leary, Bishop Street, body. the bend on the r and Mr. O'Leary. with ver seeing the trap special the road only a ten 34 UNLICENSED tried to avoid it was a case that was coming towar Shanagolden District Court ppers. on Wednesday, before Mr. C. S. presumed that the inually.

CE

have to be increased.

accident.

Margaret Fitz