KNOCKADERRY AND E.S.B. CURRENT

Officials of the E.S.B. are expected to visit Knockaderry and district in the near future in connection with the installation of light and power (writes our Knockaderry correspondent). When the matter was taken in hand by the Parish Council last year the Rev. Chairman, Rev. Father O'Callaghan, P.P., was greatly interested in the project. At that time the people were canvassed and there was a good response generally. In the many parts of the country where people have taken in the light they are loud in their praises of the scheme.

FOYNES PIONEERS

On Monday night the Foynes Branch of the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association held a general meeting in St. Senan's Hall (writes our Foynes correspondent). The Rev. Father Cussen, C.C., presided. The members of the Council present were Messrs. Wm. Sheehan, Michael Sheehan, Stephen Jackson and James King. There was a good attendance of old members and some new members were admitted.

RATHKEALE CLANN NA POBLACHTA

At a meeting of above the following officers and committee were elected:—Chairman, Mr. J. White; Vice-Chairman, Mr. C. Gorman; Treasurer, Mr. F. Neenan; Secretary, Mr. M. O'Shea. Committee—Messrs. B. Tansey, S. O'Connor, J. McCarthy, J. F. Hayes, B. White, M. O'Shea, P. Steele, J. Sheehan and T. Sheehan.

FEDAMORE COURSING CORRECTION

Mrs. Vera McQuaid's "Galloping Home," having appeared on the Fedamore coursing card at the meeting held on the 4th inst., was incorrect. The dog entered was "Galloping Gale," by Rare Record x Hudson's Bridge, which ran at the meeting and was beaten in the second round of stake.—S. J. Gleeson and J. Feely, Hon. Secs.

GIFT TO John Keating, R.H.A.

The Committee are very grateful for the generous response to their appeal. They have decided, however, to keep the list open for another week to give an opportunity to those who may have overlooked the matter to send their subscription. J. J. JOHNSON, Hon. Treasurer, (20c)
