

ANTIC
ALE
GINS

3rd JAN., 1949

S IN ALL
TMENTS

, Ltd., Limerick

A SALE
ING AWAY
ON!

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.

- Vests 1/6
- Cotton Frocks 7/11
- Wool Frocks 15/11
- Skirts 9/11
- Blouses 5/11
- Jumpers (All Wool) 9/6
- Lumber Jackets (All Wool) 9/6
- Knickers, Ladies' size 1/11
- Knickers, O.S. 2/11
- Stockings 9d.
- All Wool Ankle Socks 1/6
- Ankle Socks, Super Quality, 1/11

Blankets, Rugs, Children's

Occupation in Germany, but had no records on him to prove his statements. However that may be, witness could not say a lot of things in his favour.

Defendant said he was separated from his wife and child, who lived in Limavady, Co. Derry, as he and his wife, who was a Protestant, had had a difference over bringing up the child in the Catholic religion. On the night of the offence he had got drunk and had not known what he had been doing.

Accused was sent to prison for a month.

DEATH OF MRS. QUIRKE

With very deep sorrow we announce the death, which took place in Barrington's Hospital on Sunday, December 26th, of Mrs. Diana Quirke, wife of Mr. John A. Quirke, Insurance Broker, Rosbrien, Limerick. The deceased was a member of a prominent Clare family, being daughter of the late Patrick Duggan, merchant, Ennis. A lady of marked culture and refinement, and of a very agreeable manner, she was deservedly held in the highest regard by a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. After Requiem Mass in St. Michael's Church on Tuesday the funeral took place the same day to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, the cortege being large and representative. To the highly-respected and widely popular husband, Mr. J. A. Quirke, and the other sorrowing relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy on their bereavement.

The funeral from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery was large and representative of Clare, Tipperary and Limerick.

Rev. John Lambe, C.C., Fethard (nephew), was celebrant of the Requiem Mass. The other clergy in attendance were—Rev. R. O'Sullivan, C.C., St. Michael's, and Rev. T. J. Lyons, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were—J. A. Quirke (husband); Patrick and Daniel Duggan, Ennis (brothers); Mrs. Culligan (sister); Rev. John Lambe, C.C.; Joseph and Patrick Duggan, P. Lambe, Thurles, and Joseph Long, Dublin (nephews); Mary Duggan, Rita Duggan (nieces); Mrs. D. Duggan and Mrs. J. Duggan (sisters-in-law).

ATTACKED BY RAM

Last week (writes our Killaloe correspondent) two elderly sisters—Miss Eily and Miss Mary O'Brien, Belkelly, Ogonnoloe—were attacked by a three year old ram. Miss M. O'Brien went to turn her sheep out of a turnip field when she was attacked and knocked down. When not returning in due time, her sister went in quest of her and found her lying on the ground. When she tried to raise her, the ram attacked

These five pistols, fully primed, were used by Patrick Enright while he was in Culluragh, Cratloe, Co. Clare. The guns are now in the Fenian times. The guns are now in the Museum.

MUCH MORE
For Your Coughs

Fights Colds B

Your little one gets so much relief—so quickly!—and in two comforting ways at once when you rub his chest, throat and back with Vick Vapour-Rub!

WORKS OUTSIDE—Like a warming poultice, Vick works through the skin, eases tightness and "draws out" congestion. And, at the same time—

Just rub

WANTED, 500

Daniel Kelly