

OF LIGHT OPERA

ling to advance information ls of the Christian Brothers Limerick, were never man in Gilbert and Sullivan's musical opera, "Iolanthe" r a week's presentation at ric Theatre, commencing week). It is said that the s year is the best so far, and rything is now in readiness n almost ten years of excellual presentations to the k public. Further details had from our advertising

CHARITY SERMON

annual charity sermon in the Good Shepherd Convent, k, will be preached in St.
Cathedral at the 12 o'clock n Sunday, 11th inst. The r will be Rev. Father C.P., Mount Argus.
On the same day, by kind ion of his Lordship the a collection will be made the churches of the city in the Convent funds, a most ng and worthy object.

LA CARNIVAL BALL

Carnival Ball in the Stella n on New Year's Eve was ound complete success, as nual reunion invariably is. most enjoyable in every rend the arrangements gave most satisfaction. Ralph r's full band supplied the with the usual marked effi-and a delightful supper was tly served. Those present ud in their appreciation of nt's very fine enjoyment.

golden and Rathkeale Dis-courts will not be held in r, as the District Justice on leave from the 1st of till the 12th of January (in-The usual monthly Court held at Adare on the 13th ary at 2 p.m.

on the occasion of the ac-so that the only circumon which a criminal charge e sustained was the quesspeed. He felt that a num-motorists driving through k were careless as regards nd he further thought that hiles an hour was too high time of day or night in k. He would like to men-at pedestrians dressed in one invisible to motorists involve larger subsidies, and that tea was no exception from the tendency towards higher world prices on all commodities. Importers stated that efforts at the moment were being concentrated in the building up of large reserves of tea in the country, adding that ships of the commodity were arriving regularly.

LIMERICK MAN'S SUCCESS

In the recent final examination of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, held in Dublin, Mr.
Francis Corbett, of No. 2 Upper William Street, Limerick, qualified as Chartered Accountant.

Mr. Corbett was articulated to Mr.
William H. O'Donnell, Chartered Accountant and Public Auditor, 90 O'Connell Street, Limerick.

BARON OF EMLY FAIRS DEAD.

Mr. William Glasheen, whose death occurred at Emly at a ripe age, was for many years a member of the Tipperary Rural District Council and Board of Guardians.
He was "Baron" of the fairs of Emly, and took a prominent part in the national movement of his time.

AUXILIARY POSTMAN INJURED

On Christmas Eve Mr. James Ryan, auxiliary postman, Sean Clarach Terrace, Charleville, was knocked down by a motor vehicle in front of his residence and sustained some injuries. He received medical treatment and is making satisfactory progress.

SOAP COUPONS.

The coupons to be used by domestic consumers to obtain soap for the month of January are those marked T 8 on page 41 of the General Ration Book.

COAL PRICES.

Industrial and domestic coal, both American and British, will be sold in Dublin at £6 17s. a ton. The price in most other centres will be somewhat higher.

DATE FOR GENERAL ELECTION.

Mr. de Valera intimated at Newmarket-on-Fergus on Wednesday night that February 4th will be polling day in the general election.

DEATH OF UNIVERSITY LECTURER

Year in customary fashion. B crowds paraded through the street and groups sang "Auld Lan-Syne" as the witching hour approached. The chimes of Mount S Alphonsus, Augustinian Church and St. Mary's Cathedral pealed forth their sweet music, being pierced by the raucous blasts from sirens.

Indoor attractions were liberall patronised. A gay and merr crowd attended the New Year Ba in the Stella, which was, as usual a huge success.

RED INDIAN FOR PLOUGHING MATCH.

One of the four champion ploughmen who will represent Canada in the international ploughing match at Saintfield, near Belfast, on February 11th next, is John Cupton, 19-year-old Red Indian of the Ire-quois Confederacy, Six Nations Reserve.

GIFT OF GOLD WATCH.

Mr. T. Nunan, Ardfert, past-President of the I.N.T.O., was, at function in Killarney, presente with a gold watch by his colleagues to mark his retirement from the teaching profession. Over 10 teachers attended.

HIS LAST FIGHT.

Joe Louis, world heavy-weight champion, said on Wednesday tha his fight next summer would be with Jersey Joe Walcott, who a-most deprived him of his title recently. He added that it would be his last fight, win or lose.

FINED £50 AND HIS LICENCE SUSPENDED.

At Bangor Petty Sessions Loui Morrison, Lismoyle Park, Belfast was fined £50, with 23/- costs, and his driving licence was suspended for 12 months, on a charge of driving a motor car while under the influence of drink.

MISSING BANK SUM.

It was discovered yesterday in the Ulster Bank at Ballina, County Mayo, that £5,300 given to a bank clerk to send by registered post to the head office at Belfast on Saturday did not reach its destination.
Civic Guards are investigating the matter.

STOLE SHIP'S CLOCK

Richard Doyle, fireman on board the s.s. "Moelfre Rose," was sentenced to two months imprisonment