

and for turf has considerably, and many vendors are coming out and disposing of probably reduced prices. Turf that would previously have cost approximately £12 are now sold at £7, £8, and £9

OFFICER OF GUARD.

the impending transfer of Patrick Mulrooney, of Littletown, Thurles, who is connected with much regret by his friends at Pallas and elsewhere (a correspondent), who is stationed there for many years, during which he has studied the law with tact and proved himself a highly esteemed member

ACTIVE AT 110.

in Mrs. Mary O'Neill, the oldest woman in the district who will celebrate her birthday next Monday, who sews bread, helps with the sick, and goes out to visit the sick, attributes her long life to the will of God."

IMPROVED LIGHTING IN BANDROOM

have recently erected public lamps in Croom (a correspondent there). The improved lighting conditions are much appreciated by the public, and certainly much to the amenities of the place.

AT SAWMILLS

at Messrs. W. W. Sawmills, Adare, is still without any sign of a settlement. The trouble is the employment of non-Union

NEW CANON.

Michael O'Rahilly, of Carrara, has been appointed Canon of the Killaloe Diocese by His Lordship, Most Rev. the Bishop of Killaloe.

Cutting Scene entered by this competitor obtained much praise for its originality and charm, good workmanship and accuracy of detail. Further comment from the judge states:—"The whole scene has a living quality that brings the on-looker to the heart of the western bog country. Everything in the exhibit was made by the competitor even to the curing of the kid skin that makes the furry brown ass, and the spinning of the wool from which she knitted the three jerseys."

Mrs. Frawley, who is wife of Mr. P. Frawley, Manager, National Bank, Rathkeale, is a highly skilled craftswoman and is an organiser for the I.C.A. in County Limerick.

MACLIAMMOIR'S NEW PLAY

The Savoy was packed to capacity a few years ago when Michael MacLiammoir's play, "Where Stars Walk," was presented there. During the week commencing February 2nd his new play, "Ill Met by Moonlight," will be presented at the Playhouse by members of the Poetry Circle. The initiative and talent of this group were amply acknowledged at the close of last year's Drama Festival and an inspiring performance may be expected.

The convulsive humour which carries this phantasy on its course has earned the favour of the Dublin and London critics. This is the first time the Poetry Circle has presented a play not written in verse.

BOHERBUOY BAND

The Boherbuoy Band will leave the Bandroom on Sunday next, 25th January, at 1 p.m., and parade via Boherbuoy, Davis St., Glentworth St., O'Connell St., Patrick St., Rutland St., Athlunkard St., to Athlunkard Bridge. The return parade will be by the Sandmall, Mungret St., High St., Wickham St., Parnell St. and Boherbuoy.—P. Phelan, hon. sec.

DIED AT MASS

While attending Mass at St. Mary's Church, Askeaton, Mr. Michael Purtill, of Main Street, Askeaton, collapsed and died. He was a retired shoemaker.

would mark the case proved and apply the Probation of Offenders Act. As regards the question of proper insurance he would adjourn the case solely for the purpose of dismissing the charge against Mr. Haggie under the Probation of Offenders Act or on the merits. However, Mr. Haggie need not attend Court on the next occasion, when he (Justice) would then satisfy himself as to whether he would apply the Probation of Offenders Act or dismiss it on the merits, when the certificate was produced. However, Mr. Haggie could take it that the charge against him would be dismissed.

Continuing, the Justice said he considered that the Court had been treated with discourtesy by the solicitors appearing for the owner of the car. He would adjourn the case against Mrs. Mulholland for one week, and would then go on with it whether or not there was any appearance for the defence.

NEW PASTOR

Rev. E. Kinane, who has been C.C. at Pallasgreen for the past 19 years, has been appointed P.P. at Annacarty, Co. Tipperary (writes our Pallasgreen correspondent). During his stay in Pallasgreen Father Kinane was very popular and won the love and respect of the people among whom he laboured. Whilst the people of the district regret his departure, he takes with him their very best wishes for many years of health and happiness in his new parish. Father Kinane is being replaced in Pallasgreen by Rev. J. Fitzgerald, C.C., Herbertstown.

CLAUGHAUN G.A.A. CLUB

Claughaun G.A.A. Club had a most successful year in 1947. This was shown at the annual general meeting, which was the largest and most enthusiastic held in the 44 years of the Club's history. At the meeting, a full report of which is unavoidably held over to Monday's issue, officers and committee were elected and medals were presented to the successful members of the juvenile, minor and junior teams.