

ing film has been secured support. It is a revival of nt's "New York Town," a a great city and its people. includes Fred MacMurray, rtin, Robert Preston, Akim, Lynne Overman and Eric sday's "Ziegfeld Follies" is ngth revue of such lavish ns that it beggars descrip- imed in superb technicolor; ised as an imaginary show he were alive to-day, the ence Ziegfeld would put on vast amount of present day nd technical achievements sposal. It is as good a film could ever wish to see. g array of stars include Powell, Esther Williams, elton, Maria Bell, Kathryn Fred Astaire, Lucile Bre- ne Kelly, Victory Moore, lton, Edward Arnold, Judy etc.

's "One Way to Love" will be supported by a fine me) star's Willard Parker, Morris, Marguerite Chap- l Janis Carter in an amus- dy drama.

LI—On Monday and Tues- the downstairs portion of ma will react in its usual manner to the hair-raising and hair-breadth escapes of hero who has held his fol- n filmland for almost two I refer, of course, to Tar- of the jungle, in his latest "Tarzan and the Amazons." arzan discovers that a group rers have crossed the im- mountains to a valley entirely by women, in search ble minerals, he comes he greatest adventures of support, "Vacation in Reno," ly all the way, with Jack d Anne Jeffreys sharing co- g honours.

sday's "The Doctor's Warn- the latest in the "Crime series, starring Warner and it is one of the best. Starrett heads the cast of ical Western support, "Sto- e."

's "Gaiety, George" pays to one of the best loved n of theatreland, George es. Excerpts from several best known shows are in- n a feast of music, senti- nd song. Richard Greene Todd are good in the leads, atmosphere of old London aslit days is well conveyed.

ensuing finance year. This would make for excellent administration of the county's resources.

The Chairman remarked that the outstanding amount of Agricultural Grant at the moment was £55,000.

Co. Manager (Mr. P. J. Meghen, B.E.)—We will not get that until March 31st.

Referring to Senator Madden's suggestion, Mr. M. O'Donnell said everybody would be satisfied if the Council received payments under the Agricultural Grant as they fell due.

The matter was not discussed further.

DEATH OF MRS. MARGARET STACK

The death has occurred at her residence, Carey's Road, of Mrs. Margaret Stack. The funeral took place on Tuesday from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. The chief mourners were John Stack (husband), Michael, Edward, John, Austin (sons); Mrs. Kearns, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Punch, Mrs. Gleeson (daughters); Mrs. M. Stack (Dublin), Mrs. E. Stack, Mrs. J. Stack, Mrs. A. Stack (daughters-in-law); P. Kearns, M. Wallace, L. Punch, J. Gleeson (sons-in-law); M. Stack (brother-in-law); Mrs. Neilan, Mrs. O'Malley (sisters-in-law); P. O'Halloran, Miss Kitty Stack (Dublin), Mr. and Mrs. J. Dooley (Dublin), Miss K. Stack (Dublin) (cousins).

There was a large and representative attendance at the funeral, including Ald. J. Reidy, T.D.; Ald. J. Carew, Ald. D. Bourke, T.D.; Mr. P. J. Donnellan, B.C.; J. Neilan, W. Barrett (Irish Wire Products), J. J. Whelan, P. Meskell.

Rev. Fr. White, Adm.; Rev. Fr. O'Sullivan, C.C., said the prayers at the graveside.

"ILL MET BY MOONLIGHT"

On Monday the Poetry Circle opens what promises to be an outstanding week for Limerick playgoers. Micheal MacLiammoir's "Ill Met by Moonlight," which drew packed houses in Dublin and London, is now being produced here for the first time.

One English critic says of it:—"There is no Irish faking about this play, none of the bogus Dublin poetry that passes for genuine in London; no 'be gorrags' or 'shure and I'm tellin' ye.' The author keeps tenaciously to the thin line that separates sanity from superstition. The whole thing is magnificent theatre."

of water and there were sent expert divers and patience and suffering through to the ship's gold between 1930 and

THE CLO GRAND M IS

HOSPITALS' TRU

MUNSTER

The Report of the M 31st December, 1947, pre and Twentieth Ordinary net profits of £147,357 co

The Resources
£1,457,180 on the

The comparative fig

Net Profits	...	..
Dividend	...	..
To Reserve Fund	...	..