WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET

Tuesday, February 10th—Heavier entry than last week; some choice heifers on offer, nice heifers were freely bid for, but vendors at first held for high prices, which purchasers were not willing to give, and some heifers passed through the ring unsold, but were mostly all cashed afterwards. Top price for heifers went to Mr. John Stokes, Milford, Kildimo, at £47 10s., the runner-up being Captain Delmege, Castlepark, at £42 10s. Mr. Rd. Shanahan, Carheeney, Kildimo, and Mr. P. Foley, Cooleyhennan, obtained £40 each. The dairy cow section included two small bawns of cows, which were mostly all cashed; also some other cows, calved and calving down, met ready customers at recent quotations. Top price in this section went to Mr. J. J. Smith, Newboro', Patrickswell, at £44 10s., the runner-up being Mr. Thomas Meany, Mungret, at £41 10s. Top price for the bawn of cows the property of the Reps. of the late James O'Connor was £41 10s. In-calf and calved heifers £38 to £47 10s. promising
