NOTICE TO CLUBS.

Will all clubs and intending ones, please note a Board meeting on Tuesday, at 9 o'clock, in the Gaelic League Hall. I understand that on the agenda for Tuesday is the question of a schools league. The Board cordially welcomes any teacher interested in the idea and also invites a school representative.

CHAMPIONSHIP SHIELD PRESENTED.

Before the convention concluded, the Vice-President presented the county championship shield to Miss C. O'Connell, captain of St. Patricks, the county winners for 1947.
With the singing of the National Anthem the convention was brought to a close.

DEATH OF MRS. CULHANE, GLIN

The death of Mrs. John Culhane, Church Street, Glin, has taken place (writes our Glin correspondent). Deceased was extremely popular with her neighbours and made friends everywhere she went. She was kindly, generous and good-hearted and will long be missed by her family and friends.
She was the mother of twelve children, ten girls and two boys.
One son, Mr. Thomas J. Culhane, was a famous footballer and All-Ireland referee, and the other is Guard Michael Culhane, Castlerea.
Her husband, Mr. John Culhane, pre-deceased her two years ago.
Her home during the trouble was a refuge for the men "on the run," who attended her funeral in large numbers. Her funeral to Kilfergus Churchyard was one of the largest seen in the district for years. She is survived by her children.

Rev. Father Carroll, P.P., and Rev. Father Conyers, C.C., officiated at the funeral.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

without Calomel — and you'll jump out of bed in the morning full of vim and vigour

The liver should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk, and the world looks punk.

Laxatives help a little, but a mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good old Carters Little Liver Pills to get these two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, use

Tony Nash opened their account with a long-distance point from a free. Ballysimon recovered immediately and gave us a glimpse of their best form, as Berkery tested MacDonnell with a hard drive. The latter cleared, but Doyle collected the delivery and sent a long shot all the way to the net. A nice bout of even hurling followed, Treaty-Sarsfields again asserting themselves as Nash and Carroll brought the sides on level terms with a brace of points. Larry Nolan and Mick Carroll did great work for the City men around the midfield sector, and Liam MacInerney, getting his chance, scored a Treaty goal. Joe Mitchell, followed with a point to make it a four-point lead.

Treaty-Sarsfields were in brilliant mood at this stage. Paddy Murphy added a further goal and Mick Carroll a point, to give the interval figures of 2-5 to 1-0. A rally by the Faughs just before the change over indicated a thrilling second half, for it took all the best that Christy Aherne and company could put up to stem the lightening raids of Berkery, Doyle and Madden

A fast goal by Mick Casey shortly after the resumption brought the Faughs within five points of the leaders, and for a spell it looked as if they would get on top. Rare battlers these Treaty-Sarsfields lads, who contested every inch with added vigour. Clash for clash, they matched the county men, and when Liam MacInerney placed Paddy Carroll for a spectacular goal, they had asserted their superiority once more. Fifteen minutes of the game remained to be played, but the lead from this on never looked like changing hands. Treaty-Sarsfields commanded the situation, and Paddy Carroll scored another goal and his brother, Mick, a point to chalk up the ten-points victory.

The teams were:—
Treaty-Sarsfields—Moss MacDonnell, Paddy Fitzgerald, Christy Aherne, Willie Hurley, Mick Fitzgerald, Tony Nash, Ted Brennan, Mick Carroll, Joe Mitchell, J.
Lovatt, Liam MacInerney, Larry Nolan, Maurice Fitzgerald, Paddy Murphy, Paddy Carroll.

Ballysimon-Faughs—M. O'Dwyer, Mick Madden, Sean Crotty, Kevin Power, J. Doyle, Mick McGrath, Frank Madden, P. Berkery, W.
Madden, D. Brennan, D. Madden, J. Madden, J. Ryan, M. Casey, P.
Cooke.

South Liberties ... .. 8-5,
St. Patricks ... .. 4-3.
St. Patricks showed up well in the early stages and with the breeze behind them gave the county defence a busy time. The latter, however, gave indications
