

SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS

lements involving the pay- of £2,000 to a County Lime- family, arising out of a colli- which took place between motor cars at Rourke's s, Bruree, on July 11th, 1946, which a husband and wife were ved was announced in the Court to-day, before Mr. ce Haugh.

the collision was between a car d by Coras Iompair Eireann a car owned and driven by ael O'Mahony, Main Street, leville.

en the case was mentioned y, it was announced that .. without an admission of ity, agreed to pay Mrs. ahony a sum of £1,680 and in settlement of her claim, Mr. O'Mahony £320 and costs, spect of the injuries sustained e accident.

A YEAR OLD

PLAYHOUSE FUNCTION

pleasing little function took at The Playhouse on Saturday when the College Players rated the first anniversary of opening of the Theatre. The ion coincided with the closing of the group's presentation erard Healy's fine drama of the e years, "The Black Stranger." e Mayor of Limerick, who was nt in the capacity audience on concluding night of the play, ed the group every success in uture and congratulated them the magnificent performance had given that night.

wards of thirty members of group were provided with er by an energetic Ladies' Com- e under Miss Maura McGowan, the night was brought to a with musical items contri- d by Misses L. Skehan, Hilda on, Mrs. N. Gallivan and rs. Sean O'Kelly, James Gould, allivan and H. O'Brien.

DROMCOLLOGHER LIBRARY SERVICE

e local library service is lar- availed of and highly appre- d in the locality (writes our ncollogher correspondent). It

MAY BE USED AS A SANATORIUM

A plan for the reorganisation of the public health services is being prepared by Dr. Noel C. Browne, new Minister for Health, and will be submitted to the Government. In the course of a statement in this connection on Monday the Minister said:—"The question of using the Foynes hotel as a sanatorium is under consideration, but we may find certain difficulties there, which will have to be overcome. We also intend to re-organise and re-equip dispensaries throughout the country."

ABBEYFEALE WOMAN'S DEATH

The death of Mrs. Catherine M. Wall, of Colbert's Terrace, Abbeyfeale, which occurred suddenly on Saturday of last week, came as a shock to her bereaved husband and family. Deceased, aged about 36, was the mother of four children, and had been about her usual business when she became suddenly ill and died shortly after being attended by priest and doctor. Much sympathy is felt for her bereaved husband and family. There was a very large attendance of the public at the funeral on Saturday to Newcastle West.

FEILE LUIMNIGHE DRAMA FESTIVAL

Owing to a cancellation, no performance will take place at The Playhouse this evening.

On to-morrow, Knocknagow Players will present "The Shadow of a Gunman," and on Friday, St. John's Players (Hospital) will give "To-Morrow Never Comes."

A full list of next week's programme will appear in the "Limerick Leader" on Friday night.

TWO TRAINS TO RUN

C.I.E. will run two trains from Limerick to Dublin on Saturday next to facilitate hundreds of people anxious to see the rugby international between Ireland and Scotland. The first train will leave at the usual hour, 8.15 a.m., the second departs at 9.20 a.m. The re-

POSTS AT ELECTION

TRADES COUNCIL PROTES

At their meeting held on the 20t inst. (says a supplied official report the Limerick Trades and Labour Council were unanimous in passing a resolution of protest against the appointing of persons already i employment to positions on th staffs engaged during the genera election. As the Council is c opinion that the qualified person necessary for this work can b readily found amongst the unem ployed, the matter has been take up with the authorities responsibl for such appointments.

Writing us in reference to Al Hartney's recent remarks on th same subject, a correspondent sign ing himself "Cynical" says:—"Th principal grievance is the passin over of competent men who hav acted with full satisfaction a several elections and who, therefor require no one-day schooling a proposed by him. His informatio I presume from official sources, a to why we were not employed i misleading and an insult to ou competence, and, seeing that som of the permanent officials neve acted as presiding officers before will not deceive anyone with spark of intelligence"

DROMCOLLOGHER SOCIAL CLUB

The following are the recent r sults of the Billiard Tournamen promoted by the Dromcolloghe Social Club (game to 200 in eac case):—

- P. Noonan beat N. Savage (189)
- J. Noonan beat E. O'Sullivan (160).
- J. Barry beat D. Lenihan (160).
- SEMI-FINALS.
- J. Noonan beat J. Barry (193).
- P. Noonan a bye.

GLIN O.A.P. COMMITTEE

At a meeting of Glin Old A Pension Sub-Committee Mr. Jan