Mr. Edward Nealon stated that he was in entire agreement with the decision to form the Guild now mentioned by Rev. Father Minihan, as in it he saw hopes for the revival of the dramatic class.

GOOD RELATIONS

BETWEEN MANAGER AND COUNCIL

The harmonious relations which exist between the County Manager (Mr. P. J. Meghen, B.E.) and the Limerick County Council were referred to at a meeting of the Council on Saturday, when, in the ordinary way, a copy of the Department's circular letter giving details of the new Order (already published) under which local bodies were allowed new functions under the Management Act, was put before the meeting.

Mr. J. W. Canty, Chairman, said that Mr. Meghen had already given the Council the benefits of the new functions mentioned in the Department's circular, and possibly more in addition. Limerick County Council was, in this respect, very lucky.

The Manager said that, in a number of points on the borderline between reserved and executive functions, and sometimes even over the border-line, he felt it necessary to consult the Council.
He would like to tell the members in the light of the recent statement made by the new Minister that there would be further powers given to the local authorities, that he would always be very pleased to give the Council the benefits of any such powers. He thought he and the Council would always be able to reach a working agreement.

There was no action taken on the circular letter, copies of which had been sent out to members.

DEEPLY REGRETTED

DEATH OF MRS. CATHERINE O'SULLIVAN

A lady of many remarkably fine traits of character passed away in Limerick County Infirmary yesterday in the person of Mrs. Catherine (Kate) O'Sullivan, Sarsfield Street, Limerick. Deceased, who had been seriously ill for several months back, was relict of Christopher O'Sullivan, founder and editor of the "Limerick Echo" and sister of Mr. J. J. Mulqueen, Chief Reporter of the "Limerick Leader." She was held in the highest esteem by all classes and few ever enjoyed the high opinions and good wishes of so many or deserved them so thoroughly. Of a naturally refined and gentle disposition, she was the very personification of kindness, good-heartedness and sympathy.
Deeply and genuinely religious, she was charitable in a high degree and was ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in distress. Naturally genial and good-humoured, she had a kind word of and for everybody, and always took the cheerful view of things. Coming of very highly respected stock, she was herself in every respect a most estimable type of Irish womanhood. Her death will be deeply regretted not only by her own relatives but by a very wide circle of acquaintances, who held her in the most affectionate regard. To her brother (Mr. J. J.
Mulqueen), her sisters, Mrs.
McGwynn, N.T., and Mrs. Maguire, and the numerous other relatives and friends we extend our very sincere sympathy.

The remains will be removed from the County Infirmary to St.
Michael's Church this (Monday) evening at 7.30 o'clock. Requiem Mass will be offered up at 10.30 to-morrow (Tuesday) morning, and the funeral will take place at 12 o'clock the same day to Mount St.
Lawrence Cemetery.
