RATHKEALE MAN'S DEATH

The death of Mr. John Cregan, The Square, Rathkeale, occurred on April 30th at the residence of his sister in Limerick City. Deceased, who carried on a successful business as victualler in Rathkeale for a number of year, was a familiar and popular figure in the town.
A man of keen intelligence and exceptionally good memory, he could recall interesting reminiscences of people and happenings in Rathkeale and the locality around in by-gone times.
The remains were brought to St.
Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Saturday evening, and the funeral, which was of large dimensions, took place to the local cemetery on Sunday. The officiating clergy were:—Rev. P. Lynch, C.C.; Rev. J.
Lyons, C.C., and Rev. G. Enright, C.C. pecially for boys and girls, because the animation of youth flows out in harmonious movement and the body as well as the mind feels its gladdening influence.

DEATH OF MR. J. HARRISON

With very much regret we announce the death of Mr. John Harrison, who passed away on Tuesday, 4th inst., at his residence, 52, Athlunkard Street, Limerick. Deceased had been for a long period an official of the Royal Liver Friendly Society, from the service of which he retired on pension a year or two ago. A man of the highest principles of honour and integrity, he enjoyed the confidence and respect of all who had come in contact with him in either his official capacity or otherwise. A sincere nationalist, he was one of those present at the first meeting held in Limerick for the launching of the Volunteer movement in this area.
He took a great and intelligent interest in Irish affairs, and had sound views on most problems affecting the welfare of his country.
A model husband and father, he leaves a widow, son and two daughters to mourn his loss, and to them and the numerous other bereaved relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church on Tuesday evening, and the funeral took place yesterday (Thursday) to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. The attendances on both occasions were large and representative.
