

THE NEW BISHOP.
Celts, Augustinians, White
ers, African Mission Fathers Fathers of St. Patrick's Society e strongly represented, o Limerick-born priests—Rev.
Whelan, C.S.Sp. (a first cousin e new Bishop), and Rev. John C.S.Sp., acted as chaplains to ordship. Rev. C. Holly, C.S.Sp., ative of Tarbet, Co. Kerry), master of ceremonies.

GREAT CATHEDRAL FILLED TO CAPACITY.

ceremonies began at 8.30, but before that hour the great edra] was filled to capacity. procession of bishops, priests other religious was watched by at gathering of natives, whose ential demeanour was as ing as it was edifying. en the Bishop-Elect, accomd by the other dignitaries of Church, entered the Cathedral organ played "Ecce Sacerdos us" (Behold the Great Priest). voices of the choir at the time resounding through the e in their singing of that most lful hymn of praise and sgiving. The choir, through-sang the sacred music with erful feeling, creating a pro-impression on all present.
Father Keane presided at the a and the choir was conducted ev. Father Timon.
st Rev. Dr. Moynagh delivered loquent and thought-stimulating on. His Lordship spoke of the ty of the Episcopacy and paid y high tribute to the newly crated Prelate. He also dealt the great work that is being by the Foreign Missions for propagation of the Faith.

MOVING AND TOUCHING INCIDENTS.

Dr. Whelan, at the conclusion the consecration ceremony, ed from the Throne through Cathedral, wearing mitre and ing the Episcopal Crozier, the congregation rose. His Lord-a stately and dignified figure, rted his blessing to all. Moving touching incidents were wit-d as the Bishop passed along. present gave way to tears of and exultation, while, again, es could not be restrained from acing and prostrating them-s before him. the afternoon a luncheon was in honour of the great ion.

st Rev. Dr. Kelly, who taught ew Bishop Latin in Blackrock ge, in the course of his speech, of the great spiritual quali-and scholarly attainments of Whelan.

as one of the three most popular and highly appreciated singers in that country. His present engagement will conclude shortly and he will then come home to Ireland for a visit. His stay in this country, however, will not be very long, for he is due back in the United States later in the summer, to begin another important contract engagement.

FORGOT QUALIFICATION!

When an elderly woman was summoned before Deputy District Justice O Riain at to-day's sitting at Limerick District Court for being drunk in a public place, her sollicitor, Mr. N. S. Gaffney, said she was at home from England on rest leave, her doctor having ordered that she take "an odd bottle of stout." Apparently, said Mr. Gaffney, she forgot the qualification and had a few bottles (laughter).

The Justice imposed a fine of 5/-

DEATH OF OCTOGENARIAN

We regret to record the death of Mr. Michael Gleeson, Fedamore.
Deceased, who had been only slightly ill, passed away on Sunday, 2nd inst. Deceased, who farmed on an extensive scale, was known over a wide area, and was particularly well known to followers of coursing, as it was over his land that the Fedamore meeting was held. To his nephews and nieces much sympathy is extended.

YOUNG LIMERICK MAN'S SUCCESS

Having served his cadetship with Irish Shipping, Ltd., William P.
Hanrahan, 3 Summerville Terrace, South Circular Road, Limerick, recently passed his 2nd Mate's Foreign-going Certificate. He is son of Mr. James Hanrahan and comes of a long line of sea-farers. We wish him every success in his career.

CITY FIRE OUTBREAK

Shortly after 6 o'clock this morning the Fire Brigade were summoned to an outbreak in the fuel stores of Messrs. Aherne, Davis St.
The blaze was subdued in less than half an hour. The damage done is not very considerable.

UNLUCKY THIRTEEN!

A professional backer who attended Chester Races yesterday will have cause to remember the meeting. He took odds of 13/1 on Mr.
J. V. Rank's Derby candidate Jock never had a licence in his li Consequently, witness pointed the certificate of insurance whi covered the lorry was not effect when the lorry practically stru the last witness.

LEARNING TO DRIVE.

Patrick Hogan, in evidence, sa that on the date in question, was teaching the defendant drive the lorry. O'Dwyer took o at Dromkeen and drove throu the city. After the incident w the Guard, witness was afraid would confuse the defendant if told him to pull up immediat so he allowed him to drive on some yards. He gave the impr sion that he had been driving lorry himself when the Gua came up because he wanted take the responsibility himself.

The defendant said he had ne previously driven on a public ro He didn't really comprehend seriousness of his action on date in question.

Commenting that because of peculiar circumstances he co not decided this case as the us charge of driving a lorry with insurance cover, the Justice posed a fine of £1, with 10/3 exp ses, on the charge of hav driven the vehicle in a man dangerous to the public; 5/- having driven it without a lice and 10/- for having driven it w out insurance cover.

Elizabeth Roche, Brosna, Kerry, was charged with the ceny of £2.

Prosecuted by Supt. Collier the defendant, who was not rep sented professionally, plead guilty.

STOLE CASH FROM GIRL.

The Superintendent explained th the defendant, who was employ as a maid in the Railway Hotel Limerick, stole the cash from a sharing the room with her in hotel. She admitted the offer when questioned and had since turned the money. Two years a she was charged with the larce of a suit-case from the Railw Station in Limerick, and, th being an element of doubt abou case, was given the benefit of Probation Act.

After warning the defendant t if she came before the Court ag she would be sent to jail, the J tice applied the Probation of Off ders Act and discharged her.

MAYOR'S MESSAG

—oo—

TO ARCHBISHOP MANN