

ON TOP
flavour!
 delicious
 flavour—
 and creamy—makes Murdock's mustard everybody's favourite. With it it's perfect . . . try some today! At grocers everywhere.

Murdock's
Mustard

"Tintex
DYES
ALWAYS GIVE ME
BEST RESULTS"

★ Insist on Tintex—the Dye of proven Quality

IT'S YOUR LUCKY
DAY

Get that Lucky Sweep Ticket from

Slattery's

Lucky House
FERMOY

Tickets, 10/-; Shares, 5/-, 2/6, 1/- post paid.

nesday night in conjunction with the Limerick Gaelic Week. The committee have engaged one of the best ceilidhe bands available and expect this to be one of the most colourful Gaelic events ever held in Limerick. Parties are coming from many Gaelic centres in the county, whilst Tipperary and Clare will also be well represented. The members of the Limerick hurling team that recently won the National Hurling League will be there to get their medals. Leading Limerick vocalists will contribute to make the event a really memorable one. The admission charge is only 3/6, but accommodation is strictly limited, as overcrowding cannot be permitted.

DEATH OF MRS. B. COLLINS

The death of Mrs. Birdie Collins, "San Antonia," South Circular Road, Limerick, which took place in St. John's Hospital on Wednesday, came as a profound shock to her family and numerous friends.
 The deceased lady had a most kindly disposition and her gentleness of manner won for her the esteem and respect of all with whom she had associations. The deepest sympathy is felt for her bereaved husband, Mr. Timothy Collins, a prominent city trader; her son, daughters and other relatives in their great loss.

A great concourse of mourners followed the remains from St.
 John's Hospital on Wednesday evening and the funeral cortege on Thursday to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, after Requiem Mass, was of immense proportions.

THE LIMERICK HOSPITALS

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Sir—Mr. McGilligan, Minister for Finance, stated in the Dail that the total amount received from the Irish Hospitals Sweep was £4,759,543 stamp duty. The Limerick hospitals are badly in need of funds, and the Mayor and the prominent citizens should call on the Hospitals Trust to treat the Limerick Hospitals in a more favourable financial way. Hospital work is one of God's charities.—Yours faithfully,

JAMES GLEESON,

Sir Harry's Mall.

rigogonhell Cup will be competi-for, which is a stroke competitio over 18 holes, and on Sunday, 30 May, the Club will hold its open meeting.

NEXT SUNDAY'S SAVOY CONCERT

The concert announced for the Savoy on next Sunday night, under Limerick Gaelic Week auspices, should attract a packed house, only to hear that grand artist Michael O'Higgins, who was recently acclaimed as one of Ireland's greatest singers in a Coast to Coast tour of America, during which he travelled 100,000 miles and gave no less than fifty-three concerts.

Michael O'Higgins has arranged a very pleasing lot of numbers for Sunday night. He is listed to sing three groups of four songs each, and these include such popular numbers as—"She Moved Thro' the Fair", "Maire, My Girl"; "The Fair Tales of Ireland," "Love Thy Dearest," "The West's Asleep", "Mairin de Barra," "The Bold Fenian Men," and also "The Palatine's Daughter." Always generous with his encores, he can be relied upon to satisfy his legion of admirers. In addition, he will sing the duet, "The Moon Hath Raised," with Limerick's popular tenor, Jimmie Penny.

The return of Val Vousden to the Savoy stage will be warmly welcomed.

The visit of the Nenagh Legion of Mary Brass Band—thirty-one performers altogether, in their grand new uniforms—will be much appreciated. They will participate in a delightful programme, "Gems of Irish Song," with the Limerick vocalists—Maura Naughton, contralto; Chris O'Connell, soprano, and James Penny, tenor.

Irish dance offerings will be in the capable hands of members of the Crowe, Fitzgerald and Legea Schools, whilst the members of the St. Patrick's School Choir should provide their usual attractive fare.

Booking is very brisk, and would-be patrons would be well advised to secure their seats without delay.