

...id on, and then hit th t the bend. The machine ver to its wrong side and he the brakes. It then swung and Taylor was thrown off. cycle was neither taxed nor

P. Connolly, Road Traffic or, gave evidence of ex-g the machine. The brakes n order, but there was ex-play on the clutch cable, had slipped out of its slot. celeration twist grip was de-with the result that the would not close when it was and vice versa.

jury returned a verdict that ed died from cardiac failure, ng fracture of the cerebral ae, as the result of an t at Loughill.

Coroner and jury expressed ympathy with the relatives, ch Mr. McNeice joined on of Mr. Carmody, and Inspec-ffin for the Garda.

THE FUNERAL.

was a very large atten-at the funeral of the ded, widespread sympathy extended to his widowed brothers and sister and relatives in their bereave-

BYTERIAN WEEK-END CAMP

r the auspices of Limerick nis Presbyterian Churches, a successful Young People's was held at Glenstal Farm, during Whit week-end, by permission of Mrs. K. Gow.

y-four were in attendance e Camp Officers were Rev.
rs. A. S. Cromie, Mrs. R. en, Miss I. Shekleton, Miss sh and Mr. T. Robertson.

open-air Service and the n of boys into the member-the Boys' Auxiliary was con-by the Rev. A. S. Cromie, L.B., Presbyterian Minister erick and Ennis.

group included American, German and Irish young
The programme of games, ng, hiking, sing-song, etc., oyed by all.

IN PRICE OF PIGS

e Dublin Cattle Market to-00 pigs were on offer, being than last week. Prices, for t time in a year, fel' below /- mark per cwt. The aver-ce paid to-day was 190/- to A few exceptionally choice owever, realised 200/- per services of three clerks acting as clerical assistants to the engineering staff, but the Co. Council, at the next meeting, reinstated them.

These, said Mr. Gardiner, were the matters that should engage the attention of the Council and not the making of new appointments.

By 15 votes to 8 the Council rejected the motion to appoint the mechanical engineer.

GAELIC WEEK CEILIDHE

To-night, at the Stella, the Gaelic Week Ceilidhe should prove one of the most outstanding Gaelic functions held in Limerick for years.
Matt Muldoon's Ceilidhe Band, so often heard from Radio Eireann, are making their first appearance in Limerick—a visit that is eagerly awaited.

Leading Limerick vocalists, including James Penny, Josephine Scanlan and Maura Naughton will contribute during the interval, and the members of the Limerick senior hurling team will be present to receive the magnificent Dr. Croke Cup and medals, won in the recent National League victory over the All-Ireland champions — Kilkenny.
The cups and trophies won during Gaelic Week will also be presented.

DEATHS.

LEE (nee O'Sullivan)—May 9th, Catherine Christina, N.T., at her residence, Fanningstown, to the inexpressible grief of her husband, relations, pupils, ex-pupils and friends; after a long illness borne with Christian fortitude. R.I.P.

NELLIGAN — May 11th, James (suddenly), at his residence, Bos-kill, Caherconlish, Co. Limerick.
Deeply regretted by his sorrowing family and friends. Interment took place at Inch St. Lawrence Cemetery. Aged 69. R.I.P.

—American papers, please copy.

O'CALLAGHAN (Limerick) — May 18th, 1948, Daniel O'Callaghan, Shakespeare Bar, Glentworth St.; very deeply regretted by his loving brother and relatives. R.I.P.
Requiem Mass at St. Michael's Church to-morrow (Thursday) at 10 o'clock. Funeral same day at 2 o'clock to Kilkeedy Cemetery.

O'DONNELL—On May 19th, 1948, at her residence, 8 Alphonsus Terrace, Limerick, Mary, relict of Eugene O'Donnell; deeply regretted by her sorrowing sons and daughters. R.I.P. Remains will be removed this (Wednesday) evening, at 9 p.m., to St. Michael's Church. Requiem Mass at 9 a.m. on to-morrow (Thursday) and funeral at 3 p.m. to Mount St.
Lawrence Cemetery same day.

cars must not be parked less than thirty feet from a street crossing or less than twenty feet at either side of a 'bus stop sign. The Gardai authorities are enforcing this section of the Act and offenders are liable to find themselves in Court to answer a summons. But motorists have always the excuse—and a very valid one it is—that they don't really know where they are since regular parking stations are not yet clearly defined in Limerick.

THE MAYORALTY.

The Mayoral election is due to be held next month and, as might be expected, speculation is rife as to who is likely to fill the Civic Chair for the ensuing year. The present occupant, Councillor Patrick O'Connell, discharged the Mayoral duties in a highly efficient and capable manner, and should he lay aside the civic chain next month he can feel assured that he upheld the best traditions of the ancient and honoured office of Mayor. The names of three members of the Corporation are being mentioned in connection with the Mayoralty, but until they have signified their intention of being candidates it would not be fair to give them in print.

LIVING EX-MAYORS.

Limerick has probably a larger number of living ex-Mayors than any other municipal centre in Ireland. The following have worn the civic chain and are still with us in the flesh:—R. W. de Courcy, Philip O'Donovan, A. M. O'Mara,
S. M. O'Mara, James M. Casey, Ald. D. Bourke, T.D.; M. J. Keyes, T.D.; Ald. J. Reidy, T.D.; P. J.
Donnellan, P. F. Quinlan, James McQuane, D. J. O'Malley, Ald. M. J.
Hartney, J. C. Hickey. To this fourteen might be added Mrs.
O'Donovan, who acted with great efficiency and enterprise as Mayor for a long period during the absence of Mr. Stephen O'Mara on a national mission in the United States.