

subsidies goes
 a number of
 ed in a most bjoined special
 l-informed con-
 resent subsidies
 ole cost of the guaranteed over
 In peace times,
 iotic; with war
 ide. We export
 hich they could ocks, the most
 ring meat for
 by starvation."
 uiry into all the
 tries, "Sulcoit"
 he Big Business
 d excess profits
 s go to confirm

reckoned, of only
 For the four 5, Eire had an ave-
 600,000 acres of
 the yield exceeding
 ere on the average.
 twice the world ave-
 twice the Canadian re than 2½ times the rage. And as to go I heard the man-nd Smith's Millis at
 at some of the best
 e got from any part
 me from within two
 tself.
 seasons like 1947
 in every country.
 ls can be and are
 suit all conditions.
 moisture prevails,
 s are available. In
 e dropping of wheat
 war clouds gather-
 national suicide. We ren and import the
 ey could grow. Our
 d for bullocks, the
 form of production,
 for foreigners, leav-
 menaced by starva-
 ents still ship by
 a of our population,
 white slave traffic,
 en and women, free
 ers.

A DAILY SERVICE
 (Sundays excepted)
 will operate between

Rosslare and Fishguard
 From July 19 to Sept. 6, 1948, incl.

Rosslare Harbour dep. 11.15 p.m.

Full information may be obtained from the British Railways Agents at:—
 Rosslare Harbour
 127 Quay, Waterford
 98 St. Patrick Street, Cork
 123 O'Connell Street, Limerick or from

IRISH TRAFFIC MANAGER
 11 Nassau Street, Dublin, C.2.

BRITISH RAILWAYS
WESTERN REGION

(22c)

DEATH OF MR. J. DALY, TUUGH

The news of the death of Mr. Joseph Daly, Tuagh, Adare, at a comparatively young age, was learned with sincere regret in the parish of Adare (writes our Adare correspondent). Deceased, a very hard-working, industrious man, was father of Sister Esthe Daly, Presentation Convent, Pontefract, Yorks, England, and leaves a wife and two sons to mourn his loss. The funeral to the family burial ground at Adare was very large and representative.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Daly (wife), Dan and Jimmie (sons); Timothy, James, Daniel, Batt and John Daly (brothers); Timothy and Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, Tuogh; Eileen O'Shaughnessy (sister-in-law); John, Michael and Ted O'Shaughnessy, and Arthur Bourke (brothers-in-law).

Very Rev. Canon Thornhill, P.P., and Rev. Dr. Casey, D.D., C.C., officiated at the graveside.

So do the master bakers. So do the workers. The interest of all three jointly is to throw more on the taxpayer by way of subsidy or by way of price to the consumer. Who safeguards the interests of taxpayers and consumers? It is realised that the manufacturers get the wheat free, plus a subsidy of

NO RUB
 N
 NO

Family

You Are Cor

WILLIA

(22c)

Fattening W Instead of P

"I had 11 pigs and although I g of feeding their condition beca died, and then another. On open found a handful of worms. To th I gave a couple of doses of Perka passed worms. Immediately ther ful improvement in their appea a few more doses of Perkatine,
 in splendid thriving condition.
 wonderful, it saved me weeks o can thoroughly recommend it."

We did not ask or pay for t
 Mr. M. J. C., Castlemartyr, Co.

Perkatine is sold by all Chemists ueal Stores.

12 doses	9
28	1

er Better Value still in 2/3, 4/-, 6/6, 20/-

Be wise too and give y

Porkati Pig Powd