Mr. O'Malley pleaded with the Justice to reduce the sentence, as the defendant was a married man.

The Justice said that in the circumstances he could not alter the sentence because if that sort of crime were tolerated life would not be worth living. When it was an offence which took place in the Army that was all the more reason why discipline would have to be shown.

DEATH OF MR. M. BYRNES, KILSCANNELL

Much regret has been occasioned by the death of Mr. Michael Byrnes, of Kilsannell, Ardagh, who passed away early last week at his home. Deceased, who had not been in the best of health for some time, was extremely popular with all classes in the district and his demise is widely lamented by a wide circle of relatives and friends. Sincere sympathy will be extended to his sorrowing widow and family on their loss. There was a large and representative attendance at the funeral, which took place to Ardagh Cemetery. The officiating clergy were Very Rev. Father Ruddle, P.P., Ardagh, and Rev. Father Wilmott, C.C., do.

FATHER TONELLO'S APPEAL

In the course of a letter acknowledging receipt of £40 sent to him through this office in response to his touching appeal in our columns some weeks ago, Rev. Father Tonello, Assam, India, graciously thanks all subscribers and gives them his blessing. In addition to the further subscriptions already announced in this paper, we have received from two Co. Limerick residents sums of £5 and £2, respectively, and a contribution of £1 from "R. H." One city subscriber handed us 50/- and other city contributions included sums of £1 and 10/- and smaller amounts ranging down to 2/6. All the contributors wish to remain absolutely anonymous. We have now on hands for forwarding to Father Tonello a sum of £26 and this, with any other contributions received in the meantime, will be sent on in a few days.

DEATH OF MRS. O'MAHONY, THOMONDGATE

Deep and sincere regret has been occasioned in the city by the death at Barrington's Hospital of Mrs. Alice O'Mahony, Thomondgate, Limerick. Beloved wife of Sergeant Florence O'Mahony, a popular and most courteous and efficient member of the Garda Siochana in the city, the deceased was a lady of many admirable traits. Her large circle of friends deeply mourn her passing and sympathy will be extended to her sorrowing husband and family.

The remains were removed last evening to St. Munchin's Church and the large attendance testified as to the high esteem in which she was held.

The funeral takes place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on to-morrow (Saturday) at one o'clock.
