which it was alleged were also misssit- ing from the box. The statement BROTHER CHRISTOPHER, gn concluded that the defendant took as an Army shirt, a pair of gymnasium nat shoes, pair of gloves, Army green trousers, a fatigue pants, a slate ace coloured trousers, some brushes and ef slacks. The Justice at this stage was told en that the room orderly did not look ars after the box. The Justice wondered why the Jefendant wanted the slate coloured lay brother in Glenstal, and after a pants for the inspection. Mr. O'Malley remarked that us apparently when he took the other ng articles for the inspection he sucdid cumbed to taking that particular of pants. The defendant said in evidence ds, that the complainant never handed ng him the box. The box was left in a room and he (defendant) was ıge short some equipment for a G.O.C. ver inspection and that was the reason ive why he took some of the articles. Superintendent-How many shirts all were taken a post-war days. His goodwill and Defendant-One. charity were proved by all those as Superintendent-There were two to recovered. Defendant-Oh, there were two. las Superintendent-Yes, it is two in now. Evidence was given by an Army by Very Rev. Father Prior, D. diand officer that the defendant's record Bernard O'Dea, O.S.B.; deacon, Rev. was very satisfactory up to the Father Finbar O'Mahony; subtle time of the present lapse. He con-deacon, we sidered that it was the duty of any O.S.B.; ish soldier to see that another colleague's kit was brought to the store choir, in addition to the Community, nor room if it so happened that the were:-Very Rev. J. Hayes, P.P., by man in particular was going away. Bansha; Very Rev. P. Collins, is SENT TO PRISON. The Justice said it was a bad vihill, P.P., Newport; Very Rev. ese case and he considered that it was Algidius Doolan, O.P., S.T.M.; Rev. to the accused's duty to take care of Father J. Gilmartin, C.C., Murroe; nethe bee in question when he knew Rev. J. Bergin, C.C., Thurles; Rev. that it was not put into the store P. Lee, C.C., Doon; Rev. M. Holvay room. He would send the defend- loway, C.C., Caherconlish; Rev. P. ing ant to jail for one month with Walsh, C.C., Cappamore; Rev. Fr. died from suffocation as a result Cooney, Chaplain, Doon; Rev. A. of the intense heat of the previous hard labour. Mr. O'Malley pleaded with the Ryan, O.S.A., Limerick; Rev. Fr. evening. Justice to reduce the sentence, as O'Shea, the defendant was a married man. and The Justice said that in the cirnay Cappamore. cumstances he could not alter the rosentence because if that sort of FATHER TONELLO'S APPEAL crime were tolerated life would not act be worth living. When it was an ort offence which took place in the In the course of a letter acknowver Army that was all the more reason ledging receipt of £40 sent to him our why discipline would have to be through this office in response to shown. his touching appeal in our columns enrn-Tonello, Assam, India, graciously DEATH OF MR M RVRNES

Witness-In my experience I did

FOR G.O.C. INSPECTION.

searching the defendant's house and finding some of the articles there.

in the course of which he said that years, and had been stationed at Sarsfield Barracks for the past two order to be all right for a G.O.C.

inspection. There was no lock in know anything about other articles

The statement added that ke Witness took a statement from him, ch he was married and was aged 24 las the defendant was deficient in his our kit, and took some of the articles in ng the box, and he was tempted to take m- some of the articles. He was never nd in court before, and he did not

Guard McHugh gave evidence of not see much of it.

olv

18

ley

ien

nat

ec-

in- years.

night in his 46th year, and the 10th of his monastic profession. As well as being the first laid to rest in the Monastery Cemetery, he MANY DEAD FISH was privileged to be the first professed Irish Benedictine lay Brother since Henry VIII destroyed the Monasteries. He was an expert at tree felling, and long will his memory last in Murroe as provider of firing during the hard war and who had Masses offered for him, and who flocked to pay him their last tribute on Thursday morning. Solemn Requiem Mass was sung chanters,

O.S.A.,

do.; Rev.

weeks ago, Rev. Father many dead salmon, and thousands Rev. Francis McHenry, of dead salmon fry. Rev. Fathers Winoc and Malachy. Also in the

O.M.I., Holyhead; Very Rev. T. Mulfry lying motionless at the bottom of the river, which at the present time is running low. He gave it as his opinion that the fish probably

-00-

APPOINTMENTS

His Lordship the Bishop, Most

GLENSTAL AT PRIORY

0.S.B.

Mic. A Course to

Shanagolden,

School, 2; St. Anne's Vocational

School, 2; City Board, G.A.A., 2;

Munster Council, G.A.A., 2; Gaelic

League Irish Classes, 2; Risteard

Seoirse Mac Taigh, Patrick's Well,

2; Feile Luimnighe, 2; Barrigone, 1;

Tournafola, 1; Glin, 8; Killactin,

Newcastle West, 8; Ballysteen, 6;

Croom, 4; Ballyhahill, 1; Kilcolman,

1; Scariff, Co. Clare, 4; Mount Col-

No more vacancies are now available.

Siacuis,

Twenty-one years after the coming of the Benedictines to Glenstal, that of has occurred, the first death of one of the Community Brother Christopher Lacey. R.I.P. In 1935 he came from Naas to be a piety exemplary life of strenuous work for God and his Community, he died on Tuesday pump off the complainant's bike without permission. It was possible set tell the truth to the Guard.

for anyone to get up on anyone's bicycle and ride away. It was also possible for a person to take somebody else's pump as in the present case. It was against the defendant that he did not at the out-

mat. The then went to the com plainant's machine and took the pump with the intention of putting that he did tell lies about his address to the Guard, but subsequently account for the fact that you took the pump off the bicycle and then

Defendant—It was all a mistake.

Superintendent-It was no mis-

The Justice said it was a cheeky

ELEMENT OF DOUBT.

thing for the defendant to take the admitted everything.

put it on your own?

take at all.

The defendant told the Justice

Superintendent — How can you it back.

To-

befor

but

Quay

and child

them

jury.

Gu

27th

defer

was

child

and

The

which

dirty

lying

ing d

and some

Arth

Th

accor

they

them

going

the

told titled

he v

TI

that for give

that in t

to g

a w

the

D

Th

the

and

deni

put

mea

any

he

sen

T

Lin

wee

De

out dang Neverheless, there was some conmolis siderable doubt about the case. City and he (Justice) had been handed main a letter from the defendant's emdefer ployer testifying that the defendchild ant's character was good. There town previous'y

last against the defendant and as there was an element of doubt in the that case he would give him the bene-Kear fit of that doubt and with some they hesitation he would dismiss it on for h the merits. Stati phon anything

ON BED OF MULCAIR RIVER

What is considered by many not anglers as the worst disaster in the City history of local fishing has occurred will. n the Mulcair River. nella There was a gruesome sight for give some visitors to the river this morntold ing, when they found that the bed of it was littered with dead trout,

At Lismullane, where the Mulcair and Annagh Rivers meet, over 40 dead salmon were counted by a resident of the locality. One angler who saw the dead carcases of the fish told a "Limerick Leader" reporter that there were many thousands of salmon

O'Rourke, O.P.; Rev. David Ryan, died from poisoning. DIOCESE OF LIMERICK

J. suggestion that the fish may have

He also entertains the

CLERICAL

Rev. Dr. O'Neill, has made the following appointments: