BRILLIANT CAREER

oo

CUT SHORT BY DEATH

The death occurred in a Dublin Nursing Home on Saturday, 24th ult., of Mr. Philip Leahy, Horticultural Instructor, who was the youngest son of Mrs. T. Leahy and the late Mr. Timothy Leahy, Beenamaspug, Athea (writes our Athea correspondent). Only 26 years of age, of a quiet and unassuming disposition, he had not long completed a brilliant academic course, and his premature passing on the threshold of a promising career is deeply regretted by a wide circle, who extend their sympathy to his bereaved mother, sisters and brothers. He was brother of Mother M. Bonaventure, Ladies of Mary, Los Angeles; of Professor P. Leahy, M.E., D.Ph., University College, Dublin, and of Mr. T. Leahy, Horticultural Instructor, Piltown. Educated at St. Michael's College, Listowel; Ballyhaise Agricultural College, and the Albert College, Glasnevin, he won a horticultural scholarship — open to all Ireland — value £360, and tenable for four years at U.C.D. The latter achievement is regarded as a very singular distinction in that particular sphere of study.

There was a very large attendance — representative of West Limerick and North Kerry — at his funeral, which took place to Knockanure Cemetery.

Chief mourners were: Mrs. T. Leahy (mother), Bea (sister), Timothy, Patrick, John, Daniel and Thomas (brothers), and a large number of relatives too numerous to detail.

Rev. Father T. Leahy (cousin), Chinese Mission, officiated at the obsequies, assisted by the Very Rev. Father D. O'Sullivan, P.P., Moyvane; Rev. Father O'Neill, C.C., do.; Rev. Father J. Browne, C.C., Athea; Rev. Father Curran, C.C., Duagh; Rev. Father Dillon, C.C., Knocknagoshel; Rev. Father Dillon, Los Angeles; Rev. Father Foy, Chinese Mission; Rev. Father Power, U.S.A.; Rev. Father Collins, Los Angeles, and Rev. Father Stack, England.

DEATH OF MR. E. F. SHEEHY, MOVIDDY

Widespread regret has been occasioned by the death of Mr. Edward F. Sheehy, Moviddy, Newcastle West, who passed away on Thursday of last week of a rather protracted illness (writes our Newcastle West correspondent). Deceased, who belonged to a very old and esteemed West Limerick family, was son of the late George Leake Sheehy, and brother of the late Mr. Thomas Sheehy, Moviddy, and the late Mr. Brian F. Sheehy, B.E., Limerick. Aged about 65 years, the late Mr. Sheehy was a most popular and respected citizen, and his charming personality and generous outlook endeared him to a very wide and ever increasing circle of friends. Of a most unassuming and charitable disposition, he was ever a kind friend to the poor and those in need, and the true story of his charitable outlook will be known only to those who shared in his generosity. Deceased is survived by a sister, Mrs. R. McGovern, Dublin, to whom, as well as to the other bereaved relatives, deep sympathy will be extended. All sections of the community were represented in the very large attendance at the funeral, which took place to Churchtown Cemetery on Saturday.

The officiating clergy were: Right Rev. Monsignor Hannan, P.P., V.G.; Rev. M. O'Brien, P.P., Castlemahon; Rev. D. O'Callaghan, I.P., Knockaderry; Rev. Fr. Costelloe, C.C., Newcastle West; Rev. D. McCarthy, C.C., Knockaderry; Rev. Fr. Culhane, C.C., Feohanagh.

Chief mourners included:—Mrs. R. McGovern (sister); Mrs. Collins and the Misses Sheehy, Limerick (nieces); Mrs. Clancy, Kildorery (cousin); Robert McGovern (brother-in-law); K. Collins, Rineanna (nephew-in-law), etc.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN McINERNEY

Death removed a singularly unobtrusive but decidedly estimable figure in the person of Mr. John McInerney, 4, McNamara Terrace, Limerick, who passed away on Friday, 30th of July. Coming of highly-respected stock, being son of the late Denis and Mrs. McInerney, he was the possessor of very many admirable qualities. Well educated and widely read, he was an entertaining conversationalist and one of the most sincere and companionable of men. Gentle, kind-hearted, and refined to a marked degree, he was held in the warmest regard by all who knew him, specially those who enjoyed his intimate sequaintance. The deceased, who was all his life connected with the commercial life of Limerick in the accountancy capacity, was for many years an active and much-appreciated member of St. Michael's Temperance Society and Rowing Club. Strictly upright, unselfish and honourable in his every thought and action, he was a truly fine character in every sense of the word. To his bereaved sisters, brothers and other relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy. The funeral took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Sunday last, the cortege being very large and widely representative.

FAIRS AND MARKETS FOR BALLYLANDERS

A revival and restoration of the one-time famous Ballylanders fairs and markets is under way and already a Town Committee has been formed to promote the interests of the locality in general (writes our Ballylanders correspondent). The Young Farmers' Club have expressed their wish to give every aid possible, and it is their intention not alone to bring in their cattle and pigs to their local fairs and markets, but also will endeavour to attract buyers and see that the revival is carried out on the proper lines. Not very many years ago Ballylanders fairs and markets were among the best in Munster and leading buyers from Cork, Limerick and Waterford were ever ready to purchase the splendid stock which the locality can offer. The first fair this year is August 18th.

WEEKLY MARKET, SATURDAY, 31st JULY, 1948.

Dairy Cows and Heifers—There was a seasonable supply of dairy cows and heifers at to-day's market. The demand was keen for best quality lots and an outstanding freshly calved cow, the property of Mr. Con O'Shea, Newmarket, Co. Cork, drew brisk bidding and topped the market at £48, which is a record price for a cow for this summer season so far. The same vendor also obtained top price for heifers at £30. There was also good inquiry for incalf heifers, more of which could have been sold. Incalf and calved cows, best, £36 to £48; seconds, £32 10s. to £34; others, £30 to £32. Incalf and calved heifers, £28 to £30; seconds, £24 to £27.

ART STUDENTS VISIT KILLALOE

A group of art students from London on a sketching tour of Eire made a brief sojourn in Killaloe last week when some very pretty sketches of Royal Kincora and its lovely environments resulted (writes our Killaloe correspondent). In addition to their sketching abilities the young ladies were accomplished swimmers and took full advantage of the facilities afforded at the Pier Head for indulging in their favourite pastime.

Another artist of repute who paid a flying visit to the town last week-end was State Forester Malichi Sharkey, who managed to transfer to canvas some exceedingly interesting impressions of Ballyvalley and the Pier Head. In addition to his sketching proclivities, Forester Sharkey has several inventions to his credit, including a self-filling paint brush, which is invaluable to artists. Forester Sharkey, who was enamoured with the natural beauties of Killaloe, intends revisiting the neighbourhood in the near future. Meantime he pursues his daily avocations in Broadford, Co. Clare.

DEATH OF MR. D. COLLINS, BALLYLAHIVE

The death occurred on Tuesday after a prolonged illness of Mr. Denis Collins, Ballylahive, Newcastle West, member of a very old and esteemed West Limerick farming family. Deceased, who had reached the ripe old age of 82 years, was a very popular and esteemed figure and his passing occasioned much regret throughout the district. He was father of Mr. Donal Collins, well-known farmer and greyhound breeder, to whom, as well as to the other bereaved relatives, sincere sympathy will be extended. The remains were removed to Newcastle West Parish Church on Tuesday evening and there was a very large and representative attendance at the funeral, which took place to Churchtown Cemetery on Wednesday.

LIMERICK MAN'S DEATH IN U.S.A.

Many citizens of the older generation will learn with regret of the death of Mr. M. Gilligan, son of the late Mr. M. Gilligan, Ellen St., Limerick. Deceased left Limerick for U.S.A. more than 40 years ago. In his young days he was a very popular citizen. Upwards of 50 years ago he played with Lansdowne F.C., the surviving members of which, as is usual when a colleague passes away, are having Mass offered for the repose of his soul. "Lansdowne men never forget."
