

ed likewise to win Repeal. He red, therefore, as far as ible, to save from turbulence a ular movement which manifestly ld be broken up in a resort to s while its members almost to last man were without arms of kind. Ballingarry justified his ion.

t a Conference the day follow- Clontarf, he said. "If the ole—contrary to the Constitu- —are interfered with in the rcise of their rights, there is no n more ready than I to say in n an event: Defend yourselves! , practically his last words in blin were—in reply to a taunt by uncles of the Queen.—

I will go straight over to Lon- to see what they intend to do the Irish people—whether they still of the opinion that the h are to be fed on grass or or- angel-wurzel! If that should be mpted—and may God avert the sibility of its occurrence.—I do hesitate to say it would be the y of every man to die with arms his hands."

These statements by the aging oun are rarely seen quoted by critics.

HOUSING QUESTION

"DRIVE" IN ENNIS

On the motion of Mr. E. F. Kerin, ounded by Mr. J. Degnan, Ennis an Council decided, at a meet- on Friday night, to use compul- y powers to obtain sites for ple desirous of building houses.

On the suggestion of Mr. M. rns, it was also decided to list the derelict sites in the town h the object of building on them ases for the working classes, who, said, had been neglected for ars. If the Council could not ld four-roomed houses for the rkers by contract, then they ould try building by direct labour, was being done in other places.

BULL INSPECTIONS

At the autumn bull inspection at wport, 11 bulls passed out of 17 ered. At Abington 70 per cent. the bulls entered for inspection re passed.

Students of the Secondary Schools and Vocational School in Ennis marched to the Cathedral for the Mass.

MAN ARRESTED

HOUSES BROKEN INTO

This morning, in the vicinity of the Railway Station, Gardai O'Shea and Bresnihan took into custody a man named James Courtney, of no fixed address, who is wanted in connection with charges relating to housebreaking. It is stated that a considerable quantity of jewellery was in his possession. Courtney was preparing to board a train when he was arrested.

During the past ten days a number of houses have been broken into over a wide rural area embracing Adare, Ferrybridge and Fedamore.

STONED DOG TO DEATH

A band of eight Connemara men who stoned a sheep-dog to death were charged at Spiddal (Co. Galway) Court with cruelty. Six of them were fined £2 each and the other two £1 each. The defendants said they found the dog—the property of the local District Court Clerk—worrying sheep. They said they followed him to the house of his owner, where they put him to death by stoning.

DEATHS.

BROMELL — Thomas Bromell, Thomondgate, died on Sept. 7th, at his residence, 13 Darthmouth, Park Av., London, N.W.5. Deeply regretted by his sorrowing wife, parents, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends. Masses offered.

(American papers please copy).

ROBERTS (Limerick) — Sept. 8th, 1948, at Barrington's Hospital, Mary Ita, widow of Dr. James Roberts, of 13 Upper Mallow St., Deeply regretted. R.I.P. Remains will be removed to St. Michael's Church this (Wednesday) evening at 7 o'clock. Requiem Mass tomorrow (Thursday) at 10 a.m. Funeral immediately afterwards to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

ing had their papers minutely ained by the Russians. Policemen were dragged into a sian truck and taken away to Eastern Sector with a Ger photographer.

THE FRENCH CRISIS

It was reported by official ivers in Paris to-day that Fran very near to a Communist Ga struggle for political supren after the dramatic fall of M. S man's Government. This after President Vincent Auriol was looking for a new Premier to a Government but his succes dcutbed in most quarters in French Capital. It is believed, ever, that he will make a r strong effort to get togeth national union government, posed of all parties from the treme right to the Socialists cluding the Communists.

STRAW DESTROYED BY FIRE

A fire which broke out on a of straw, after threshing o tions at Hasset's Cross this noon, occupied the Limerick Brigade for about 2½ hours, about four o'clock. The fear that the fire would spread to a barn, filled with hay, in the y ity, but hard work on the pa the Brigade, prevented this. A one an a half miles of pipe line laid down to assist the light tr pump which was used. Most o straw stack was destroyed.

BIG HAUL OF CIGARETTES

The biggest haul of cigarettes tobacco ever made in Co. Ty was carried out yesterday noon when Customs officers police seized 10,000 cigarettes a quantity of tobacco at Stra Railway Station. The goods in suitcases and cartons. A and women were detained in nection with the affair.

THE PIGEON WAS DEAD

Mr. William Moloney, of Ard hane, Bruff, Co. Limerick, fou dead pigeon near his home at keohane. The pigeon bore a on its leg, which had the foll markings: I.U.S.P.C. 273.