question, but had come to the conclusion that effective conservation would be impracticable.
In this position to dispose of the material, consider feeding the land with it unthreshed straw. Neither was the idea introduced to introduce an idea as a method of disposal.
The committee took no action on the manager's letter.

USEFUL IN BANK EXAM.

Sheehy, eldest son of Sheehy, Postmaster,
and of Mrs. Sheehy,
and of Mr. Donal Aherne, Keale and Newcastle were successful in his examination for the rank of Ireland, held in Dublin. Leaving the school, Ballingarry, he attended the Secondary School, where he passed the Leaving Certificate
and Leaving Certifications. His hosts of friends congratulate him on his completion of the sewerage works and apply schemes for the improvement of the hospital. As far as he is concerned of the cost would be payable to the city.

The manager suggested that the Minister to carry on with the improvement of the sewerage and improvement schemes in the districts affected by the Borough extension. He suggested the other hand, to the portions which are taken over by the Corporation the settlement of the extension proposal.
The Council was on fairly in assuming that the schemes to be carried out in the proposed new district would be paid for by the

UNRESOLVED MATTER.

The manager pointed out that the Council had already accepted tenants carrying out of the hospital water and sewerage schemes, but the contract had not been started. The disagreement between the Corporation and the Council over the costs of these schemes need arbitration he suggested that the Council should be allowed to carry out the schemes mentioned; if it is not necessary as required to be made later by two bodies concerned.
The matter was complicated, and some considerable

The manager's explanation proposed that the Council should proceed with immediate effect to unanimously, Madden's original special meeting be held in the near future to consider the matter—and in committee—of the Borough extension project.

nevertheless she sang it very well.
Both Miss Bowen and Mr. O'Donovan sang their duet, "That Is So," in good style.

Another newcomer, Mr. Alfred Hughes, bass (as "Dick Deadeye"), showed that he was the possessor of a fine speaking voice which suited the part. His duet with "Captain Corcoran," "The Merry Maiden," went over well, and his acting left nothing to be desired.

Minor roles were played by Miss Joan Carroll (as "Hebe") and by Mr. Eddie O'Neill (as "Bill Bob-stay").

SPLENDID ORCHESTRA.

The costuming was appropriate, and the make-up of most of the principals was well done. This would apply particularly to Mr.
Tom Henn and Miss Bessie Bowen.
The scenery was fitting, and the entrances and exits were suitable.

But the crowning achievement was the musical score provided by the orchestra. It's well balanced efficiency was apparent throughout, and it assisted very much in adding the word success to the production. The violins went very well, and the conductor, Mr. Bowyer, always had equilibrium, as it were, obtaining amongst the various instruments.

The personnel of the orchestra were:—Pianist, Mrs. M. Griffith; leader, J. Moane; violins, G. Metcalf, Mrs. P. J. McMahon, Miss P.
O'Donnell, Mr. V. O'Donnell, Mr. K.
Sheahan; cello, Mrs. H. O'Donovan; trumpet, by courtesy of No. 2 Army Band; timpani, T. Glynn; double bass, T. Quillivan; flute, by courtesy of No. 2 Army Band; clarinet, D. McCormack.

Scene—Quarterdeck of H.M.S.
Pinafore, off Portsmouth.

"M.M.S. Pinafore" will be reproduced again on next Sunday night in the Savoy, and it goes without saying that the Savoy will be once more packed to capacity. Certainly, the Society deserves well of Limerick opera-goers in its efforts to promote musical and vocal culture in the city.

CITY COURT CASE

—oo—

A CORRECTION

Mr. A. E. Goodwin states that in a report of a case heard at the City District Court on Friday in connection with a motoring prosecution, it was represented that he (Mr.
Goodwin) had sold the motor van involved in the prosecution to the defendant. That statement was incorrect, inasmuch as Mr. Goodwin had not sold this van or any other van to the defendant.

DEATH.

FOLEY (Limerick) — October 24th, 1948, at her residence, 3 St.
Joseph's Terrace, Eileen, dearlybeloved daughter of Martin and Mrs. Nellie Foley; deeply regretted by her sorrowing father, mother, brothers and sister. R.I.P. Requiem High Mass in St. Michael's Church to-morrow (Tuesday), at 10.30 o'clock. Funeral immediately afterwards to Mount St. Lawrence, Thomas Street.

"Reports from Craobhacha indicated continued activity in matters concerning the welfare of Limerick and its citizens."

DEATH OF MISS EILEEN FOLEY

With very deep regret we announce the death of Miss Eileen Foley, who passed away yesterday morning at her residence, 3 St.
Joseph's Terrace, Limerick. The deceased, who was daughter of Mr.
Martin and Mrs. Nellie Foley, was a young lady of great charm of manner, and was the possessor of many other fine qualities and characteristics that had made her a great favourite with a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Her demise at an early age—she was only in the early twenties—has come as a great shock not only to her highly respected parents, brothers and sister, but to all others who knew her. She was exceedingly popular and had the kindly thoughts and good wishes of all because of her admirable disposition and her numerous other attractive traits. To Mr. and Mrs. Foley and the numerous other relatives we extend our very deep and sincere sympathy on their bereavement. Requiem High Mass will be offered up in St. Michael's Church to-morrow (Tuesday) morning at 10.30 o'clock, and the funeral will take place immediately afterwards to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

WELL-KNOWN NEWSBOY PASSES AWAY

It is with deep regret that we chronicle the passing, on yesterday afternoon, of Mr. Patrick Reidy, one of Limerick's most popular and good natured news vendors.

"Paddy," as he was affectionately called by his many clients, was a well-known figure in the newsvending life of the city. His familiar "stand" was situated outside the Limerick Leader office, and there he was to be seen in all kinds of weather disposing of his supplies from his wheel-chair.

Whether in rain or sunshine, and no matter if his clientele surged around him in large numbers in quest of a paper, "Paddy," in spite of a rheumatic complaint from which he suffered, always commanded a well-balanced disposition. To those who tendered him a 2/- piece or half-crown for a paper, he would kind heartedly say: "Twill do the next time." That trait was the essence of his generous character—a view that will be shared by all who knew him.

RECENT PROFESSION

The profession took place recently in the Convent of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Marseille, France, of Miss Teresa Franklin, a daughter of Mrs. Bridget Franklin and the late Michael Franklin, Drombanna Castle, Ballyneety, Co.
Limerick. Her name in religion is Sister Mary Wilfrid.

Returning thanks, Mr. O'Keefe said that his office was purely nominal, owing to the great attention the Chairman gave to his duties.

MARKETS RECEIVER.

A letter was read from Mr. F. P.
Herriott acknowledging a letter from the Board relative to the question of making a recommendation for the filling of the vacant position of receiver over the Limerick markets.

Mr. Herriott's letter continued:
"In this connection, I should like to point out that my original letter was merely a request that the members of the Board should, if they thought fit, give a recommendation as to their opinion on my suitability for the position as Receiver over the Limerick Markets. In view, however, of their hesitancy in this matter, and my desire to avoid the possibility of any controversy arising as the result of my application, I would wish that your members should not trouble themselves any further in this matter as far as I am concerned."

Mr. Roycroft—I regret very much that Mr. Herriott is not a candidate, as he would be an excellent man for the job.

Chairman—This letter does not say he is not a candidate; he merely asks us not to bother further so far as he is concerned.

Mr. O'Malley—I think that we should support the candidature of Mr. Herriott, who is fitted in every way to discharge the duties of Receiver.

Mr. Keyes said that his attitude was that as other citizens, equally highly qualified for the position might be candidates, he considered that it would be invidious to make one particular recommendation.

Ald. Bourke—That is my view, too.

Mr. Russell—I think we should not make a recommendation on behalf of anyone.

Chairman—Let me have a proposition.

Mr. Russell—I propose that the Board makes no recommendation on behalf of any candidate.

Mr. Whelan—I second that proposition.

Chairman—As that seems to be the general opinion of the Board, I declare the proposition passed unanimously.

TRANSFER OF RACE MEETING.

Mr. Keyes said that the Board should enter a protest against the diversion of race meetings from Limerick to other centres. These diversions were a serious loss to Limerick, but there was a danger that the position would be aggravated, inasmuch as it was reported that the Christmas two-day meeting would be transferred. He thought that the Board should enter a protest.

Chairman—While we have no direct interest in this matter, I agree that the transference of race meetings constitutes a serious loss to the city.

Mr. Keyes—I propose that we enter a protest to the Turf Club.

Ald. Bourke seconded the resolution of protest, and it was declared
