

mitted to the previous meeting—like Messrs. Lanigan's revised tender—did not conform to the specification, it was unanimously agreed, on the proposition of Ald. Hartney, to re-advertise, and, in doing so, to amend the specification.

FIRST PLACE IN FINAL FOR TEACHERS

In a news item which appeared in a recent issue of the "Limerick Leader" it was incorrectly stated that first place in the Teachers' Final Examination at Dromcondra Practising School was obtained by Mr. James Holland, of Newtownshandrum. We are now informed that first place was secured by Mr. Thomas Reidy, of Colmanswell, Charleville, and in publishing this correction we regret any annoyance caused to Mr. Reidy. The paragraph in question was supplied to our Charleville correspondent, who accepted it in good faith and passed it on as a news item of interest.

ENNIS COURT CASE

In Monday's issue of the "Limerick Leader," a report appeared of a case heard in which a Galway man was charged at Ennis Court with a motoring offence. In the course of the report it was stated that "Mr. Patrick Hogan, Auctioneer, whose name had been mentioned, stood up in court and stated that he had not refused to give his name and address to the Sergeant." Mr. P. J. Hogan, Auctioneer and Valuer, Miltownmalbay, asks us to state that he was not the Mr. Hogan concerned in the case.

KILLALOE EEL WEIRS.

Fishing has resumed at the Killaloe Eel Weirs and from 6 to 8 stone per night—have been netted (writes our Killaloe correspondent). A much better take is expected in a short time when the Shannon rises and the running water improves.

Kevin Kelly, 8, Parnell Street, Limerick, was also prosecuted for a breach of the licensing laws on the 7th October.

A fine of £5, with no record, was imposed on the publican, while the men on the premises (who attended Court) were fined 7/6 each; those who did not were fined 10/- each.

SENT TO PRISON.

John Power, 11 Creagh Lane, Killeely, who was brought back from England on a warrant and prosecuted for neglecting his two children was sentenced to three months imprisonment with hard labour.

KILFINANE PIONEERS

A series of weekly whist drives in aid of Kilfinane Branch Pioneer Total Abstinence Association are being held at St. Peter's Hall, Kilfinane, on Thursday of each week and will continue during the coming winter. The winners on Thursday, 19th instant, were—Ladies' first prize—Sergt. J. Quirke; second, Mrs. J. Hassey. Gents' first prize—Mr. J. Connery; second, Mr. J. O'Dwyer. Owing to other amusements at present in Kilfinane there was no whist drive this week.

YOUNG BULLOCK AMOK

A young bullock ran amok in Pery Square, Limerick, this evening. It charged into the garden of the City Librarian, Mr. R. Herbert, where it did considerable damage. The infuriated animal was eventually brought under control by Gardai.

ESTATE OF FORMER LIMERICK T.D.

Mr. John Thomas Nolan, of South Cappa, Foynes, Co. Limerick, farmer and cattle dealer, a former T.D. for Co. Limerick, left estate in England and the Republic of Ireland valued at £11,363. He left his property for the benefit of his wife and children.

INDOOR BATHS.
Now that we have swimming pool at question of providing for the benefit of the should be taken up. Some years ago th searched for a suitable after much cogitation building in Henry Streetively selected, but n. In the meantime referred to has been a gentleman who, accorport, proposes to build and dance hall on the Corporation is serious indoor baths project a be acquired in the first that constructional work begun when more pressing schemes are

READY TO FIGHT.

Licensed egg producers who maintain pedigree farms—are up in arms recognised hatcheries price cutting. The price has been getting 7/6 per doz. of 80 per cent. fertility different hatchery owners operate under licence, varying prices, all below 10/6 doz. Now, the Irish Supply Farms' Association represents the licensed hatchery owners. Branch Association are being throughout the country. Tuesday last Limerick line, when 80 licensees of a total of 156, attended. The inclemency of responsible, it is a fact that about producers fail