In the course of his address, Father Kelly congratulated St. Finbarr's and wished Kileedy better luck next year. He also paid a tribute to the County Board for the great work they had accomplished during the year, and said that Limerick could well be proud of its women, who were doing so much for their national game.

Mr. S. Byrnes, vice-chairman of the Board, returned thanks, and said that a special word of praise was due to the West Board of the G.A.A. for their great help and paid tribute to secretary, M. Whelan, for the great work he had done for camogie. On both Sundays that matches were played in Newcastle West they had been very successful and this was due to him and his hard-working committee.

At a meeting held afterwards it was decided to form a West Board, who could look after the affairs of the county teams. This is something which was looked forward to since the re-start of camogie two years ago in the city, and it shows that camogie is in Limerick to stay this time, and we can look forward to next year with enthusiasm. At the moment there are four teams playing in the county and it is hoped to have double the number next year.

deputation. There are a good many people, mostly workers, in local Fianna Fail Club having a strong interest in this factory. In fact some time back when some were saying that Mr. P. Smith was holding it up under the late Government, the local club pursuer the matter hard.

So I think it is to be regretted that the Club wasn't asked to appear in deputation in order to have it fully representative of local interests. Hoping, as a reader of your popular paper, that you will allow space for these few lines. Yours truly,

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE MCINERNEY

It is with very deep regret we announce the death of Mr. George McInerney, Treaty Terrace, Thomondgate, Limerick, who passed away at his residence recently after a prolonged illness. The deceased was of a very kindly disposition and endeared himself to his numerous and wide circle of friends. He was a member of a very old Limerick family that was connected with the shipwright business for over 100 years. He was an uncle of our well-known Rugby International, Paddy Reid.

The funeral took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, and the huge concourse that followed the remains testified to the high esteem enjoyed by the deceased and his family and relatives.

to that grand old veteran, Christy Ahern, on captaining a brilliant hurling team that—with a bit of luck this year—could have dethroned the champions, Ahane.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I would like to thank you sincerely for your generosity in publishing my letters, and would like you to know that your large column on "Our National Pastimes" in the week-end issue of the "Limerick Leader" is widely appreciated by us exiles, and in no small way strengthens our link with those at home.

Yours sincerely,

JOHN JOS. TAYLOR.

WORLD'S FOOD SUPPLY

Mr. Norris E. Dodd, Director General of the Food and Agricultural Organisation, stated at a meeting of that body in Washington on Monday that the world was depending too much for its food upon North America. For the world as a whole there is only nine-tenths as much food per head as before the war.
