MARGARET WALSH

of Mrs. Margaret O'Connell Avenue, which took place at her Saturday, 13th Nov., and widespread regret. The deceased, widow of Wm. Walsh, a former secretary, Messrs. Co., Ltd., was a lady of refinement and culture. Gentle, unassuming, she was held in esteem and regard by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Despite her illness she continued to take an active interest in general affairs up to the end. A deeply religious sentimentalist throughout her long and useful life, she was a fervent Catholic. She died in the bosom of her family.

Two of her daughters, M. Rose, O.P., Donaghadee, Muckross, Dublin, and Angela O.P., Dominions Hill, Blackrock, received the religious sympathy is tendered to her expected son, Mr. John Walsh, Director and Secretary, Co. Ltd., and the other members of the family in their

DIE WITHIN FEW DAYS

Mrs. Margaret D. O'Connor, who was a resident of Church Street, Abbeyfeale, died while at her daughter's residence, at Listowel, at the age of 85 (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). Her funeral to Abbeyfeale was attended by a large number of sympathisers. Coincident with her demise was the death of her son, Michael, in New York a few days previously. Two of her sons, John and Joe, were members of the Old I.R.A. The interment took place in St. Mary's Cemetery, where the prayers at the graveside were read by the local clergy and Rev. R. Woulfe, C.S.Sp.

FINED £100 EACH

James Gildernew, Creevelough, Brantry, Dungannon, and John Burke, Carracastle, do., were each fined £100 at Clones when charged with attempting to export 3,000 cigarettes and a quantity of shirts and hair oil.

EXECUTION DELAYED FOR CHAPLAIN

The hanging of 15 Nazi war criminals was delayed for an hour on Friday in Bavaria until a chaplain could be found, says a United Press message.

December 5th. In this racy comedy all the glamour and excitement associated with such famous race meetings as Barronstown and Punchestown, with their bush fences, stone walls, double banks, owners, trainers, jockeys, bookmakers and tipsters, all are splendidly portrayed.

The cast includes Tom Duggan, Jack O'Donoghue, Michael J. Lane, Eileen Byrne, Gerard Keyes, M. J. Gilbourne, Frank Burke, Colette Mackin and Gerald O'Dowd. Production will be by Miss Eileen Fitzmaurice, who has already many successes to her credit.

DEATH OF MR. A. O'SHEA

With very deep regret we announce the death of Mr. Alexander O'Shea, who passed away unexpectedly at his residence, 20, Shelbourne Avenue, Limerick, yesterday morning. The deceased, who had reached an advanced age, was a man of high principles and integrity and enjoyed the confidence and respect of a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. The possessor of many admirable characteristics, he was of an upright, sincere and kindly disposition, and was held in great regard by all with whom he was intimately acquainted. To his bereaved wife, sons and daughters, and the numerous other relatives, we extend our very sincere sympathy. The remains were removed to St. Munchin's Church last evening, being followed by a very large and representative cortege. The funeral will take place from St. Munchin's Church at 3 o'clock to-morrow (Saturday) to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.
