

ES £10

own to the
t the home-
ulcahy, Bal-
last week
respondent).
for a prize
bird realised
J. P. O'Brien,
anner.

K PEST

a the parish
g gradually Killaloe cor-
nday last
P. Lynch,
number of
killing five

C START

branch of romcollogher
diastic start
dent there)
preliminary
ade for the
A number
ion and will
est approach

LIBRARY

y Librarian,
llogher with
or the local
wide select-literature is e service is
and highly lity.

HENS

ed the Kil-
in quest of urchased in rate of 7/6
es our Kil-

DAY

Killaloe, shot
t rabbits at
h, on Sun-
lloe corres-

the Chairman, Mr. J. J. Downes, presiding, a resolution was passed concerning the attitude of the Electricity Supply Board in their recent activities in disconnecting consumers, and also at the high price charged for electricity, and it was the wish of the Committee that this protest be registered in conjunction with that of the Limerick Chamber of Commerce and of the Ratepayers' Society.

WAGES IN GROCERY SHOPS.

In connection with a dispute concerning Cork grocery assistants the Labour Court has recommended maximum rates of 116/6 for male and 70/- for female shop assistants and clerical staff. Charge-hands' wages are recommended as 126/6 after four years.

DEER IN EAST CLARE

A male and female deer were seen on Saturday of last week grazing on Maghlesa, the highest mountain in Clare (writes our Killaloe correspondent). It is hoped they will be left undisturbed, so that in the course of a short time the species will multiply.

HEAVY LOSSES

The liner "Queen Elizabeth," held up for 13 days by strike and fog, has lost a complete round trip worth £100,000 in dollars. The Cunard Co. is losing thousands of pounds every day in food and service for the delayed travellers.

REVENGE ON THE DOG

For so ill-treating a dog that it died, Brendan Walsh, aged 23, of Griffith Avenue, Dublin, was fined £3 in Dublin District Court yesterday. His excuse was that the dog had killed two of his mother's hens.

BRITAIN'S RADIO EXPORTS

Radio exports from Britain were worth £1,000,000 a month up to September, says Mr. Wilson, Board of Trade president.

FOX NETTED

While members of Galbally Coursing Club were netting hares a fox was caught in one of the nets.

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT.

On the proposition of the Mayor, seconded by Mr. O'Connell, it was unanimously agreed to purchase an automobile electrical equipment at £45 from Messrs. Lucas.

Having given details of the equipment the C.E.O. said that the price of it was very reasonable.

Replying to a question by Mr. Whelan of extending accommodation in the Committee's schools, the C.E.O. and the Chairman assured him that the proposed scheme of extension was not being overlooked.

ABBEYFEALE I.C.A. WHIST DRIVE

The annual I.C.A. Whist Drive held in St. Ita's C.Y.M.S. Hall, Abbeyfeale, was thoroughly enjoyed by the occupants of 31 tables. Rev. J. Halpin, C.C., presided, and Dr. Ed. Hartnett was M.C. First lady's prize went to Miss Betty Mangan, Main Street; and Miss Griffin, Kilconlea, and Miss O'Connor, Brosna, tied for second place. First gent's prize was won by Mr. Jack McEnery, Main St., and second by Mr. A. Greaney, New St.

Father Halpin, C.C., returned thanks on behalf of the Committee.

DEATH OF NONAGENARIAN

There was a large attendance of the public at the funeral to Abbeyfeale of Mrs. Mary Colbert, widow of the late Michael Colbert, egg and fowl merchant, of Kilconlea, Abbeyfeale (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). Deceased attained the fine old age of 95, and belonged to an old and much esteemed family in the district. There was also a large attendance at the interment in the old Abbey Cemetery, where the prayers at the graveside were read by the Very Rev. P. Canon Carroll, P.P., V.F.; Rev. J. Halpin, C.C., and Rev. J. Liston, C.C.

DEATH.

LINDSAY—At his residence, 6 Greenpark Villas, Ballinacurra, Limerick, Robert D. St. L. Lindsay (of Lindsay Bros.). Deeply regretted by his sorrowing wife and family. Funeral from Presbyterian Church to St. Mary's Cemetery to-morrow (Thursday), at 11.30 o'clock.

"I am the Resurrection and the Life, saith the Lord. He that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." — (St. John; Chap 11, 25-26).

local subjects—subject soil. His Legends give power of imaginatio
tions to which he g
told for generations
fireside—traditions w all but forgotten. Hi are replete with fire a short, Hogan was a g

★ LEGENDARY TALE

Probably the best
Hogan's legendary
"Druken Thady," v
encounter with a fem Thomond Bridge. Th
seem to have a v
spooks, for he has fr
them—and with go
material for his poeti
his "Fairy Bride" he most alluring picture
spirit that was suppos
the Kileely district.
was in the long ago,
was virgin land, the inhabitants need not b disturbed, for fairies a now an unknown qu
certainly in the Kileely

★ WHAT A PICTURE

The following ex Hogan's poem—"The
—will illustrate his
powers:—

"The bell had toll'd
the world is at
And the white
travell'd half-wa
And a tall female
by the tide,
But, her step leave
the bank's dewy
And her thin, airy
white and so co
The light of the m
freeze in each f
Her person speak
bearing is proud
And she moves like
a golden May e
Yet her dim, aet
shadow had cas
And the dew lies
the grass where
And, Cathal spring
fair one to gree
But he stands as
fetter'd his feet.