

ORGANIST'S VISIT

At the Savoy to-morrow night, Norman Metcalfe, well-known Limerick organist, will make a guest appearance at the organ for one night only. Norman is on holidays and has been prevailed upon by the Savoy management to give a recital at the organ. Norman is a Limerick man who won many musical awards of the highest order for himself and Limerick, as a boy violinist and singer a few years ago. Since then his popularity has become a byword with Dublin audiences at the Savoy Cinema and Theatre Royal in Dublin, where he is resident organist. His recital to-morrow night should prove to be a great attraction to his many friends and fans in his native Limerick.

DEATH OF OCTOGENARIAN

Great regret was occasioned in Adare district by the death of Mrs. Rea, Clorane, Adare, one of its oldest parishioners (writes our Adare correspondent). Deceased had attained the age of 85 years and belonged to an old and respected family in the district. There was a very large attendance at the interment in the family burial ground at Adare Cemetery.

The officiating clergy at the graveside were:—Very Rev. Canon Dunworth, P.P., Adare; Very Rev. Canon Wallace, P.P., Kildimo, and Rev. Dr. Casey, D.D., C.C., Adare.

COSTLY TALK—LITTLE WORK

The Paris Assembly of U.N.O. cost £580,000, but beyond talk the sittings did little really effective work. Remarking that the session had accomplished little or nothing, Most Rev. Dr. MacNeely, Bishop of Raphoe, stated yesterday at Letterkenny, "we must turn for consolation and light to Almighty God and His Holy Mother."

and the Richmond line had some narrow escapes, but thanks to a stone wall defence held on to their narrow lead.

The game ended with Young Munster attacking on the Richmond line. For the winners, Connell was a safe full back, with Hanley, Keyes and Walters sound in defence. Dillon, Lynch, Gallagher and Hogan hard-working forwards.

"Newman," Callaghan, Eades and Cowhey (backs); Mulcahy, Galvin, Horrigan and Stubbins (forwards) were best for the losers.

Referee, Mr. K. Quin.

BOWEN SHIELD FOR CRESCENT

The result of the last game in the Bowen Shield Competition, played at Musgrave Park, Cork, yesterday, between P.B.C. and C.B.C., which ended in a draw of 3 points each, decided the custody of the Bowen Shield for season 1948-'49. Had C.B.C. won a play-off with Crescent was necessary, but yesterday's result gave Crescent College the trophy for the fourth time, since its inception.

At Nenagh, yesterday, the home side had a convincing win over Old Crescent Boys. Nenagh, 4 goals (20 points); Old Crescent, 2 tries (6 points).

At Mungret yesterday, the students defeated Shannon by 1 penalty goal to nil.

MUNSTER'S WIN

IN HOCKEY TEST

As expected, Munster defeated Connacht, at Cork, on Saturday, in the Inter-Provincial hockey test. By 5-4, the home representatives, by reason of a first-half superiority, gained the mastery over the Westerners. In the second half they were forced to try all they knew in order to retain their lead over a Connacht team that played exceptionally well in the second-half on the sodden turf.

The match was a great success for the Young Men's forwards on the side. Ellis made an impressive start to his "Inter-Pro." career by scoring three times, while his colleague, de Lacy, netted twice. The scheming of Lilburn was another telling factor in the success of Ellis. Byrne, on the left wing, was subjected to some unfair decisions by the umpire in the first half, and this seemed to have an effect on his usual sound play. J. O'Dwyer was successful at inside-right, though his brother, Noel, at left-half, was really outstanding.

McNamara, at centre-half, played remarkably well, and Hughes was sound on his right. The full-backs, Watts and South, had to all intents and purposes, an off-day.

assault one of the witnesses after he had left the Court.

Mr. J. C. Murphy, solr., said had been asked by the person responsible to apologise to the witness and the Court.

Supt. J. McCarron said he has been attending Corofin District Court for seven years and has never before heard of such conduct, which merited the strongest condemnation. He asked the Justice to hear Sergt. Walsh, who had witnessed the occurrence.

SERGEANT'S STATEMENT

Sergt. Walsh said that Thomas Hawes, Kinvara district, the witness and John Flaherty, Tullaghmore Tubber, has been engaged in a heated argument outside the Court after the case had finished. Both had been in aggressive attitudes and Hawes had been trying to take off his coat. Witness went between the two men and across his shoulder Flaherty drew a blow at Hawes.

Hawes said that Flaherty accused him of not giving right evidence and then went to hit him so he (Hawes) stepped back to open his coat.

"To fight in the precincts of the Court?" said Supt. McCarron.

"No," said witness, "but to open my coat, which was too tight."

"Yes," agreed the Superintendent ironically, "I suppose you wanted to get more air."

Flaherty said the disagreement was as much the fault of Hawes as his own. He asked Hawes why he had not sworn right, and he also drew a blow at Hawes when the Sergeant stepped between them.

BOUND TO THE PEACE.

Justice Gordon Hurley bound Flaherty to the peace for 12 months in his own personal bond of £50, and two sureties of £25 each.

O'Connor was not at his best in goal.

It gave the Munster men all they could do to hold the better-trained Connacht team in the second half. Russell, at centre-half shone in the late stages of the game.

The Munster selectors felt satisfied with their team's showing, and the same team will meet Leinster next month.
