(Brother Rudolph) will be enjoyed not only by music-lovers but by all who like to hear the story of great workers for their countries—especially as Chopin's country is again deserving of the greatest interest and pity. There are numerous other essays both in Irish and English on religious and profane subjects, a large book-review section and many poems. It can be had from booksellers, or by post from the publishers at the wonderfully cheap price of 1s. 6d. As a Christmas gift especially desirable for clerical friends "Seraphica" is admirable.

NEWPORT MAN'S DEATH IN BANGOR

The death took place of Mr. Wm. H. Cullen, J.P., Drumbawn, Stanley Road, Bangor, Co. Down, a native of Newport, Co. Tipperary. Mr. Cullen, who was in his 78th year, lived in Bangor for 23 years. He joined the R.I.C. when he was 18 and fought in the first World War, enlisting in the Munster Fusiliers, in which he reached the rank of sergeant-major. On the disbandment of the regiment he rejoined the R.I.C. and was promoted to the rank of sergeant. On leaving the force he obtained a post at Stormont in the Land Commission, and on his retirement from that position he was appointed J.P. for County Down. The late Mr. Cullen won many medals while in the R.I.C. for handball, cycling, swimming and tug-o-war. He was a goalkeeper for Distillery for several years and was a member of the side that won the Irish League in 1896.
