Young was the heart that is cold to-day,

Jolly and true to all;

Where all life's sorrow is over; And joined with your father and sister,

On God's beautiful, heavenly shore.

For days and nights she bore great pain,

Waiting for cure but all in vain; In silence she suffered, with patience she bore,

Till God called her home to suffer no more.

She was only a dear little rosebud,

A sweet little flower in bloom, God took her home to heaven.

Before she was spoilt by earth. Oh, Angel, will you bring this message,

To our Theresa up above, Tell her how we miss her.

And give her all our love.

—Never forgotten by her loving parents, brothers and sisters.
