DEATH OF MISS O'MALLEY, AMIGAN

The death of Miss Bridie O'Malley, Amigan, Croagh, which occurred after a brief illness at Barrington's Hospital, Limerick, on the 10th inst., caused a profound shock when the sad news reached the general public (writes our Rathkeale correspondent). Very rarely has been experienced such widespread and genuine sympathy as that felt for her relatives, to whom her demise, at an early age, means a very heavy bereavement, and many a prayer has been said beseeching God to comfort them and enable them to carry their cross.

A long cortege of cars followed the remains when removed to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Monday evening, and there was a very fine attendance at the funeral to the adjoining cemetery on Tuesday.

The officiating clergy were: — Very Rev. Canon Murphy, P.P.; Very Rev. Canon Carroll, P.P., V.F.; Rev. P. Lynch, P.P.; Rev. T. Costello, C.C., and Rev. G. Enright, C.C.
