

harmony that the listener appreciate. He had a good presence, which gave improvement to his acting as compared to his previous performances. Thereby combining the singing with the performance was worthy of plaudits. His duet with (played by Thomas Egan), "Do Not Leave Me," fully a spontaneous round of "O, False One, You deceived Me," in which Master combined with Master Beegan (as "Mabel"), was first-class duet. The same were also very effective in "Frederic, Stay." Another number proved to be "When Was a Little Lad," which together Masters Ring and the most fascinating in of singing, and, perhaps, standing highlight of the as the rendering by Harry of "Poor Wandering One." is one of the most colour- light opera score, with t that last Monday night's looked forward to its introduction with a certain of eagerness. Well, Master simply enthroned himself night's pedestal of fame. ltering of the lilting aria that expressive sweetness ary to make it a success. se for the audience were dious coloratura passages. as harmonious accompani- m the flautist with the taccato notes expressing a nd which would do justice sionals.

LEAT PERFORMANCE.

Thomas Egan was very l in his portrayal of Apart from his part in the o Not Leave Me," which nctly good, he also did very he trio: "Away, Away," in with Masters Ring and ly (as the "King"). It ce sincere performance on of Master Egan.

ting of Master Sean Kelly ng to be desired, and the y was that he was not so mpressive in his solos. He the singing of the "Pirate" ectively and contributed e success of the opera. As Master Eamon McDer- s pleasing, while Master Fleming evoked good in his study of the of the Police." The trio: Patrick Colleran (as Master Daniel Kelly (as and Master Patrick Mc- (as "Isabell"), completed ast and were satisfying in spheres of singing and fascinating, popular and instructive interval attraction

CHARLEVILLE LADY'S

DEATH

The death took place recently at her residence, Knight's Lodge, Charleville, of Miss Susan M. Fitzgibbon, youngest daughter of the late Mr. Michael and Mrs. Fitzgibbon, Fortgeorge, Rathkeale. The deceased lady was aunt of Mr. Owen Binchy, solicitor, Charleville; Mr. Michael Binchy, S.C., Dublin; Mr. James A. Binchy, solr., Clonmel; Mr. Joseph Binchy, merchant, Rathkeale; Mrs. Cecil Hartigan, Charleville, and Mrs. T. M. Healy, Dublin. Following 11 o'clock Mass in Holy Cross Church, the funeral took place to Rathkeale.

DEATH OF MR. M. RYAN, BALLYSHONAKIN

The news of the death of Mr. Michael Ryan, Ballyshonakin Effin, was received with feelings of sincere regret by all classes of the community. He was an exemplary Catholic and was father of Rev. Jas. Ryan, C.C., Bideford, Devonshire. He was an extensive farmer and a keen follower of hurling. Evidence of his popularity was shown by the large concourse of people who attended the funeral from Effin Church to Galbally Cemetery.

TRANSFER ON PROMOTION.

Newcastle West has lost one of its most popular and esteemed Bank officials by the transfer of Mr. Jeremiah O'Hanlon, Cashier at the local Branch of the Provincial Bank of Ireland. Mr. O'Hanlon, who has been transferred on promotion to Enniscorthy, spent four years in Newcastle West, during which time he endeared himself to his colleagues as well as to the members of the general public with whom he came into contact.

LIMERICK SOCCER CLUB

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir—Please allow me a little space, to put a few questions before the Committee of our Local Soccer Club.

- (1) Is it possible to sign a good playing coach?
- (2) Are our boys getting the necessary physical training?
- (3) Are they having lectures on tactics, etc?

Remember, I'm not criticising the STATIONS.

Mrs. J. Meehan, Barrington's Bridge, Lisnagry.

KHAKI CAMPBELL DUCK STATIONS.

Mrs. M. Hurley, Ballysimon Limerick; Mrs. M. Kennedy, Kilderry House, Fedamore.

NOTE—During the station season which began on 1st December, 1948 and terminates on 30th April, 1949 Hatching Eggs will be supplied at above stations to residents in the rural districts of the county at the price of 5/- per dozen. Day-old Chickens (hatched from eggs produced by the station flock) will, if available, be supplied at 15/- per dozen.

M. GLEESON,
Chief Agricultural Officer,
71, O'Connell St., Limerick.

(f15c)

LIMERICK MENTAL HOSPITAL BOARD.

APPOINTMENT OF MATRON.

Applications are invited from competent persons for the post of Matron in the Limerick District Mental Hospital.

Age Limit: Each candidate must have attained the age of 30 years on 1st January, 1949.

Salary: £210 a year, increasing by £7 10s. a year to £285 a year, with allowances valued at £100 a year. In accordance with the provisions of the Mental Treatment Act, 1945, a deduction of 3 per cent. of the salary and money value of the allowances will be made for pension purposes.

Application form and full particulars as to qualifications, etc., may be had from the undersigned, to whom completed application forms should be returned so as to reach here on or before the 21st January, 1949.

P. HARNETT, Chief Clerk.
11th January, 1949.

Note:—The above appointment is additional to appointment of Deputy Matron already advertised. (f15c)

LIMERICK COUNTY COUNCIL.

LETTING OF MUNSTER FAIR TOLLS.

Tenders are hereby invited for the letting of the Tolls of the Munster Fair for a period of one year. The contractor will be required to keep in repair the weighbridge in the Fair Green and will be held responsible for damage to same. The contractor will be required to provide his own locks and gates.

The person whose tender will have been accepted will be required to give a bond to the County Council