RATHKEALE COURSING CLUB

NOVEL SPORTING EVENT

A very novel and highly sporting event was conducted by the Rathkeale Coursing Club on Sunday last, namely, a 32 course open stake on the western wing of their preserves. Hares proved rather plentiful, and two rounds of the stake were gone through in the course of a few hours. The most of these trials were got on the lands of Mr. Jackie Magner, Coolanoran. To this gentleman I tender my highest appreciation for a perfect scheme of game preservation, for, in addition to hares, we put to flight as many as 15 to 18 pheasants. From a sentimental point of view I often wonder why such a bird of beauty should ever become the victim of any gunman. Mr. Connie Magner, on horseback, gave, I must say, very important decisions, while "Topper" Guinane and Mickey Keating acted as slippers admirably.

KENNEDY — February 3rd, at her residence, Kilnoe, Mount Park, Kathleen, daughter of Mrs. and the late Michael Kennedy. Remains will be removed to St. Michael's Church to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock. Funeral arrangements later. R.I.P.

IN MEMORIAM

BARRY (Second Anniversary) — In loving memory of my dear brother, Patrick Barry (late of Rathuard). On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church and Dominican Church for the Barry family.—Inserted by his fond sister, Nan; Brooklyn, New York.

BARRY (Second Anniversary) — In loving memory of our uncle, Patrick Barry (late of Rathuard), who died on 9th February, 1947. Masses offered. — Always remembered by Josie and Lena.

BASHFORD (13th Anniversary) — In sad and loving memory of our dear son, Robert (Bob) Bashford, who died on the 4th February, 1936. On his soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Mass offered.

No more will the smile of his sweet face brighten
The sad, weary days of those left behind;
For no one who knew him could ever forget him,
His ways were so simple, so gentle and kind.
—Sadly missed by his loving parents, sisters and brothers.

CARROLL (Fourth Anniversary) — In sad and ever loving memory of my dear husband, John (Jack) Carroll, of 3 Island Road, Limerick, who died on the 5th of February, 1945. On his soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

The passing years can never change,
Our thoughts of him so dear;
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near.
—Inserted by his loving wife, Lena; and children, Bridie, Sean and Gerard.
