O'Dea (Young Munster) and O'Dea (Garryowen). We find that T. Cunneen junior inter-provincial soccer forward. The Pike attack has three ex-League of Ireland players, Sean O'Dea, Timmen and S. McCarthy. Caledonians can also claim ex-League of Irelanders in Doney Healy, Phons. Ryan, Jim Madden, Kevin O'Leary, Martin Synan, Liam O'Connell and Tom Madigan. Thus it is gauged that both teams are provided for with experienced players. A great game is likely; the odds to win are Pike, but a either way may decide the

The fourth meeting between the sides is likely to arouse more interest than the previous engage-

 The Rovers' representatives in the Corn Command competition—Battalion (Sarsfield Barracks) had a great victory at Cork, by defeating a strong Artillery Battalion and they led by 2-1 at the final. The 12th Battalion Private Aherne (2) and Pte. Kelly. It is a noteworthy feat in the part of the "12th" to reach the final as their team is composed of Privates.

DEEL ANGLERS

NEWCASTLE WEST BRANCH MEETING

Mr. D. J. Moylan, Chairman, presided at the annual general meeting of the Newcastle West Branch of the Deel Anglers' Association, which was attended by over sixty the ball. Their unorthodox play completely upset the Irish attack and never allowed our forwards or backs to produce that form which put them on top of the world last year. There is no use crying over spilt milk, so we now await our battle with England on Saturday week, and who will fill Cullen's place? Will it be Strathdee, Burgess or Kyle? For Ireland's sake I hope it will be the first mentioned.

In Junior Ranks.

The Limerick section of the Munster Junior Cup is running according to schedule. On Sunday last the second teams of Bohemians and Garryowen did not provide football at its best, but it did give us a sensational finish. The Garryowen supporters, a minute before the end, were waiting to congratulate their team on victory, but that last minute proved that a game is never over until the final whistle goes. It was a case of quickness of the hands deceives the eyes, for while the Garryowen player nearest the ball had his eyes on it, Connolly, the Bohemian forward, came along and did the needful that won the match, and in his own mind said to his opponent, "let that be a lesson to you."

On Sunday next St. Mary's and Presentation should provide a battle royal. Last year they met in the same competition and a re-play was necessary, which eventually put "Pres." into the final. Will patrons please note that from now on all games will begin at 3.30 until further notice.
