

de, having acknowledged the proceedings concluded.

BIG IDEAS!

00

"RED" MAN'S OPERATIONS IN LIMERICK

reference to the brief details in our Monday issue re the arrest of a Jamaican on fraud in England and since been escorted back, details regarding his movements in Limerick have come to his short stay in Limerick a small farm at Four-Elms, at a rental of £25, a quarter's rent. He had Mr. Thomas O'Loughlin, a builder, to erect a bath and a dry closet on the premises at Four-Elms. He told Mr. O'Loughlin his name was "Read" and he wanted the work carried out immediately, as he was expecting his wife over from England. Subsequently, when Mr. O'Loughlin met "Read," alias "Welshman," he told him he had a bungalow built and asked the contractor to let him see some of the work on Friday last, when Mr. O'Loughlin went out to Four-Elms to see about the bath-house work, he was not surprised to be told by his contractor that the "wealthy" client had been "in the Luckily, the contractor had begun work and, there was in a position to have a considerable quantity of timber he had on the ground taken back to his premises in Limerick; otherwise Mr. O'Loughlin would have been in a big loss.

It transpired that he gave the local residents at Four-Elms to understand that he was an Irishman and, no doubt, to others a equally "coloured" yarn.

TAL PROMOTION

Martin B. O'Donoghue, a member of the Ennis Post Office, has been promoted Postmaster at Loughbrea, Co. Galway.

imaginary uneasiness of the opulent are held up to engage our attention and sympathetic sorrow, while we go unheeded. We cannot help feeling that society has turned its back on our distress and has given us up to a life of solitary brooding amid cheerless and uncongenial surroundings.

No doubt many will object that the disorders we lament are to be found only in our own imaginations. To this we can make no other answer than that we have taken all possible pains to be certain of what we allege.

We have written this in the hope that our "City Fathers," or other persons of weight and consequence, may move to our assistance—Yours faithfully,

"PARIAHS."

(The covering letter sent with the foregoing is signed by nineteen patients—Ed., L.L.).

ADARE YOUNG FARMERS' CLUB

A party of 26 members of the Adare Young Farmers Club were visitors to the Milling Department of Messrs. Ranks Ltd., Limerick, on Wednesday, 16th inst. They were shown through the works by Mr. Mercier, who welcomed them and said he was delighted to see such familiar relationship existing between the firm and the party of farmers. He was sure that Mr. Rank would be only too pleased to know of their visit to the Mills.

Afterwards the party were entertained to an enjoyable lunch.

Mr. P. Lillis, M.C.C., proposed a vote of thanks to the firm and said he was sure that many members who failed to accept of the generous invitation would be sorry when they knew of the interesting visit they had missed.

Mr. P. Dunworth, Secretary of the Adare Young Farmers' Club, seconded the vote of thanks.

DEATH OF MR. F. MURPHY

Deep regret has been occasioned by the sudden passing yesterday of Mr. Frank Murphy, 3, St. Mary's Terrace, Ballinacurra, Limerick.

The deceased, who was a native of Cobh, was on the staff of the E.S.B., Limerick, and was held in high regard by his colleagues.

He leaves a widow and two children, to whom very deep sympathy will be extended.

"Willie Brannigan" was very well cast and special mention should be made of Jan Webster, Helen Fogerty, Henry Mahon and Mary Nolan, who fitted into their parts in fine style.

Production was in the very capable hands of George Webster, who can always be depended to turn out a fine show.

By way of a curtain raiser, a one-act comedy, "The Rest Cure," went off in great style. Here George Webster, as "Clarence Reed," showed how not to take a rest cure. He was very well supported by Eileen Farrell as "Murel," who impressed very much. The remainder of the cast—Misses Dorothy and Joan Webster and Mary Nolan—played their parts in fine style. Fine production was again by George Webster. Altogether this was a very well balanced show and only proves that here we have a rural group that should rise to great heights.

NEW COURSING AND GUN CLUB

A large and representative meeting was held in the Parochial Hall, Dromcollogher, at which it was decided to form a coursing and gun club for Dromcollogher and district. Preliminary arrangements were made re the stocking and preservation of lands, and the following officials and committee were appointed:

Chairman, Mr. M. Geary; Vice-Chairman, Mr. D. Savage; Secretary, Mr. D. O'Kelly; Treasurer, Mr. J. Hennessy.

Committee—Messrs. P. Fitzgerald, S. Ryan, P. O'Sullivan, M. Farrell, B. Costelloe, J. Reidy, J. Forster, J. Egan, J. O'Brien and P. Long, N.T.

DEATH.

O'NEILL (Limerick)—This morning (23rd inst.) (suddenly), at her residence, Four Elms, Drombanna, Limerick. Mrs. Catherine O'Neill. R.I.P. Remains will be removed this (Wednesday) evening to Donoughmore Church at 6.30 o'clock. Funeral arrangements later.

MASS NOTICE.

At the request of the residents of Hyde Road and Maher Avenue, Prospect, Masses will be offered at St. Joseph's Church for the welfare of Cardinal Mindszenty and his fellow sufferers.

this em other d it sign nautical "Blue that the Under given prepar by me referred claims goods s they see

BEFOR

Not s vessel i trader v writ in by the vessel co writ re this par some pa was rem "Blue P to all from wh to raise reminder shore lea identify foundati the cent

NOT PO

Accord the goos gardens spread thorns suspectin nylons a the hum must go outdone, has been —so it is not only produces each an August you hav wire, it berry tr