DEATH OF MRS. JOSEPHINE HAYES

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Josephine Hayes, widow of the late John Hayes, building contractor, which took place at her residence, Munster Terrace, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick. The deceased lady, fourth daughter of the late Michael and Mrs. Bridget Waters, Dock Road, was a gifted singer in her day. She was a member of the choirs of St. John's Cathedral and Jesuit Church and, besides, was a frequent contributor to charity concerts. A lady of great charm of manner, she was held in high esteem and regard and her passing is deeply mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The funeral from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery was of very large proportions.

The chief mourners were—John and George Hayes (sons); Miss M. Hayes and Mrs. Wixted (daughters); John Wixted, Josephine, Elizabeth, Helen and Evelyn Hayes (grand-children); Mrs. G. Hayes and Mrs. J. Hayes (daughters-in-law); Misses Nora and Mary Hayes, Mrs. John Bartley (nieces-in-law); Thomas, James and John Hayes (nephews-in-law); Mrs. G. O'Doherty, Mrs. E. Byrne, Mrs. Dobbins, Mrs. Day, Miss M. Tuohy, Mrs. May Hall, the Misses Gladys and Frances Hall, John, William and Jack Hall, Michael O'Halloran, John and Joseph Tucker (cousins); Mr. and Mrs. Wixted, Miss J. Wixted, Sean Wixted, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Reid, George O'Doherty (relatives).

Very Rev. J. White, Adm., St. Michael's, and Rev. M. Minihan, C.C., do., officiated at the graveside.

Once more I would like to remind delegates the meeting is timed for 8 o'clock sharp.

CHARLEVILLE SALES

Property market sales continue to realise big prices. At a recent auction in the Courthouse, Charleville, an attractive dairy and fattening farm at Ballyhught and Jamestown, Co. Limerick, the property of Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, was sold by Mr. M. S. Sheedy, auctioneer, for the sum of £4,300, to Mr. Michael Cagney, Springfort, Charleville. Messrs. James Binchy & Son, solrs., had carriage of sale, and Mr. J. T. Liston, solr., acted for the purchaser. On Saturday last in the Courthouse, Charleville, a residential farm at Clonleigh, Newtownshandrum, containing 114 acres and 20 perches (S.M.) or thereabouts, subject to a yearly annuity of £26 9s. 2d., payable to the Irish Land Commission, P.L.V., £72, was sold by Mr. David J. Hayes, auctioneer, Ballylanders, for the vendor, Mrs. Elizabeth Cagney, to the Newtown Creamery for the sum of £2,910. Mr. J. T. Liston, solr., had carriage of sale, and Mr. O. Binchy, solr., acted for the purchasers.

EFFIN JUNIOR HURLING CLUB

At the annual general meeting of the above, the following officers were elected:—Presidents, Rev. Fr. Moloney, P.P., and Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.C.; Chairman, Mr. Owen O'Brien; Secretary, Mr. James O'Riordan; Assistant Secretary, Mr. James Culhane; Treasurer, Mr. Christy Kirby; Captain, Mr. Patrick Ryan; Vice-Captain, Mr. Donal Meagher.

The Club hope to have a very successful season, as considerable support is forthcoming from the Garrienderk side of the parish, the only thing remaining to be solved being the procuring of a field for practice, and with this object in view, members are to interview local farmers. The funds are stated to be approximately £30.
