SAL FHADA BEST

ON LEOPARDSTOWN CARD

Sal Fhada's remarkable display at Naas, where he finished third after falling and being remounted in the race won by Toy Glen, makes him out the best bet on the card at Leopardstown to-morrow (wires our special Dublin Racing Correspondent). Arnott's charge is equally engaged and I make him a nap selection for his chosen race.

Proud Point shares with Sweet Haven, top weight for the Dalkey Hurdle, but this game little mare's fine battling qualities entitle her to the vote.

Chief danger may come from the lightly weighted Golden Devon.

All Steel has been running well and may just have the beating of Shangri in the Bray 'Chase.

SELECTIONS.

- 3.0—Sal Fhada (Nap) (if abs., Cappagh).
- 3.30—Proud Point.
- 4.0—African Collection.
- 4.30—All Steel.
- 5.0—Sal Fhada (if abs., Christie).
- 5.30—Leaping Wave.
