

Milk!

ad well; this is
four and bake
temperature, 350°F.

der, blended in ns, gives exactly texture to Soda

BAKING DER

ch

DUBLIN

of ladies' wearing apparel, including ladies' shoes, silver, cross, a leather suitcase, the property of Miss Peg Garvey, ladies' hairdresser, Abbey Street, Ennis.

Supt. J. S. Flynn, who prosecuted, said further charges were pending and applied for a remand in custody for 14 days, which was granted by Justice Gordon Hurley.

DROMCOLLOGHER COURT

Before Justice C. S. Kenny, B.L., at Dromcollogher Court on Friday, 4th inst.,

James Wall, Kells, Dromcollogher, summoned Patrick Morey, Pike St., for the trespass of a horse on his preserved grass land at Carroward East.

The Justice gave a decree for 5/- trespass and 5/- costs.

Sergeant Spillane, Kilmeedy, summoned Jeremiah Dinan, Main St., Charleville, for permitting to be used a motor van for a purpose which rendered it chargeable at a higher rate of duty than that which was paid. There was a second summons for having no certificate of insurance in force.

Mr. James Binchy, solr., defended. Having heard the evidence, the Justice applied the Probation Act.

Charles Wall, Dromcollogher, was granted a renewal of a licence for the storage of petrol.

DIED ON 89TH BIRTHDAY

The death on his 89th birthday of Mr. Thomas Fitzgibbon, Ballydonoghue, Glin, took place some days ago (writes our Glin correspondent). Deceased was a member of an old Glin family of the farming class. His funeral to Killfergus Churchyard was large and representative. Rev. Father Ryan, P.P., Glin; Rev. Father Connors, C.C., Glin, and Rev. Father Culhane, C.C., Feohanagh, Co. Limerick, officiated at the Parish Church and graveside. Deepest sympathy is offered his family and relatives.

FOX LASSED

As Mr. Patrick Stuart, Ballybrohan, Ogonnoloe, was carting manure from his farmyard to a nearby field last week (writes our Killaloe correspondent), his dog commenced to bark from a whin fence on the roadside, not far from Mr. Cody's house. The dog was very frightened, and as Mr. Stuart went to see what caused the fright, he observed a fox sitting on his haunches in a field inside the fence. Both dog and fox kept looking and grinning at each other for some time, until, finally, Paddy Cody came along at the back of the fox and with a looped rope succeeded in lassoing him.

RETIREMENT OF CIVIC GUARD

Garda Eugene Kennedy, Broadford Co. Clare who has retired on holder, "Patrick Coreoran," played a very even part, and as his wife, "Kate," Nora Crowe was particularly outstanding. Their two sons, "Michael" and "Bart," were filled by Frank Burns and Willie Sheehan. "Peter McCarthy," another small landholder (whose proud boast was—that he was out in '98), was in the capable hands of Tommie Cooke. His son, "Danny" was played by Jackie Kane, and Danny's wife, "Mag," by Una Smyth, and "Peter's" only daughter, "Bridie," was played by Mary Crowe. Denis Smyth did the part of "Sean the Fool."

They are giving a repeat performance in Bruff on Friday night, before their effort in the week following for the "Muintir na Tire" Cup, at Limerick Drama Festival.

LATE MISS MARY RIORDAN, RATHKEALE

Miss Mary Riordan, whose death occurred at Blossom Hill, Rathkeale, on the 1st instant, was the only daughter of Mrs. A. and the late William Riordan. Refined and gentle, she was a young lady with many excellent virtues. Her demise, at an early age, makes a sad bereavement for her mother and brothers, who are held in high esteem by the general public in Rathkeale. To them and to the other relatives, very sincere sympathy is extended in their sorrow. A long cortege followed the remains when removed to St. Mary's Church on Wednesday evening, 2nd instant, and again when the funeral took place to Nantenan cemetery, next day. The officiating Clergy were—Very Rev. Canon Carroll, P.P., V.F.; Very Rev. Canon Murphy, P.P.; Rev. T. Costello, C.C.; Rev. G. Enright, C.C., and Rev. D. Rea, C.C.

Have you a "tell-tale" tongue?...

Run your tongue round your teeth. . . . Do you notice a rough furry feeling? This 'fur' is caused by excess acid in the mouth. To remove Acid Fur you need something more than brushing—you need an antacid.

To correct acid many dentists advise 'Milk of Magnesia' contained only in one toothpaste—Phillips' Dental Magnesia.

Start brushing your teeth with Phillips' today and see how quickly their hidden, gleaming whiteness is revealed, giving you that attractive 'Magnesia Smile' and 20 perches, B.M. from the Irish Land subject to the revised P.L.V., £11 11s. 4d. P.L.V., £1 for this holding open reached £670, at which withdrawn, but sold afterwards to Mr. P. £700 and commission O'Donnell and Son, for the purchaser, Sellers and Co., solicitors, carriage of sale.

Rineanna North, Fergus

On Wednesday last rooms, 7 Glentworth Mr. Laurence Hanna holding at Rineanna market-on-Fergus, was sale by auction, the acres, or thereabouts two-storey slated offices and hay barn annuity, £5 13s. 2d. Bidding for this holding £1,500 and advanced which price it was having reached the now for sale by private T. F. O'Reilly, solicitor, carriage of sale.

Ballymacrease, Limerick

This valuable farm was also offered auction at the Sales Tuesday last, on instruction of E. de Regge, the area 2 roods and 13 perches, S.M. Held by Land Commission subject to revised half-yearly annuity, £1 11d. P.L.V., £84 5s. this holding opened at £2,000, at which price was withdrawn, not having reached the reserve. A subsequent offer has since been received, but not been accepted. O'Donnell and Son, solicitors, carriage of sale.

Rootlagh, Patric

These valuable lands with out-buildings were also offered for sale on Wednesday last on instructions of the representative late Mr. Maurice P. being 45 acres 3 roods or thereabouts, S.M. Irish Land Commission subject to the revised half-yearly annuity, £1 3s. 6d. P.L.V., 1 buildings, £1 10s. Bidding for this holding opened at £1,000, at which price was withdrawn, not having reached the reserve. It is now for sale by private treaty. Messrs. P. J. O'Donnell and Son, solicitors, have carriage of sale.

SALMON ANGLING FEAL

Many anglers w