...so, another man, accompanied by two children, who came from the permanent way at about 7.30, must have seen the boy. The authorities are most anxious to make contact with this man for the purpose of ascertaining if he did, in fact, see him.

The authorities suggest that people should search areas and outhouses lest the little fellow may have taken refuge in any one of these places.
