RECENT OBITUARIES

MR. GEORGE VAUGHAN.

With deep and sincere regret we ronicle the demise of Mr. George Ltd., and seven years ago he received an important appointment as accountant from the B.O.A.C. at Shannon Airport. When struck with his fatal illness the deceased was preparing to leave for Maidenhead, where he was being translead, where he was being translead by the largest cortege of people ever seen in Galbaily, with the exception of the day in which the memorial was unveiled. All public bodies were represented, including the legal profession, County Councillors, medical and teaching professions and the latest method of control of the exception of the day in which the memorial was unveiled. All public bodies were represented, inwhich is painless and leaves no marks whatsoever.

May attended by the largest cortege of people ever seen in Galbaily, with the exception of the day in which the exception of the day in which the exception of the exception of the exception of the exception of the day in which the exception of the exception of the exception of the exception of the exception Limerick delegates to the Royal their irreparable loss.
