TENANCY ACTION Question Of Greater The Famous Limerick How The Body Was Hardship

LIMERICK POSSESSION CASE

The question of the greater hardship was the point on which Judge Barra O Briain, S.C., gave his structed by Mr. M. B. O'Malley, Messrs, M. Tynan and Co.).

Mount Kennett, Limerick, sought

the £10 which would permit the H. P. Hodder, of The Haymarket, puted by the defendant. WANTED IT FOR HIS FAMILY.

Counsel said that the plaintiff wanted possession because, having with as received from Mr. Hodder having acquired licensed premises at 9 and 10 Mount Kennett, he had to go to live with his wife's family at Pallasgrean-16 miles from Limerick-for want of other accommodation. His two children were going to school in Limerick, and each morning long before it was necessary from his business point Besides this, it was the house in order to give his of Hickie, Borman, Grant and Co. business personal supervision, these lines, and said he had recommended alternative accommodation anable to accommodate his own

Cross-examined, witness agreed and in Limerick was a £4 a week

She was quite agreeable which was originally the "City of on its back, up possession if she could Paris." accommodation The defendant's daughter, Frances

Carroll, gave evidence of having looked all over Limerick for alterwithout accommodation

The Judge said he believed the been genuinely anxious to get alternative accom-The issue on which he greater hardship. He thought the defendant would be the most in convenienced by having to leave Accordingly, he would dismiss the action with costs.

A SPLENDID TYPE

LATE MISS MARY HAYES, RATHKEALE

Street, Rathkeale, on the 2nd inst., large Richard Hayes, author and Film was a pedigree pomeranian. splendid type who were and are a to the stars, but I think the greetossessed of a genuine spirit of more genuine. consideration for others, she was always happy when distress or stricken with sorrow.

C.C., and Rev. G. Enright, C.C.

repose of the soul of Mrs. Maria Collins, 20 Catherine Street, who died on April 12, 1941.

VOTE OF SYMPATHY.

Janessoro' A.F.C .- At a special committee meeting of Janesboro AFC a vote of sympathy was LIMERICK BOY'S FUNERAL appear in our week-end issue. passed to Mr. O'Dea and family on

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Actress

ADA REHAN

MORE RECOLLECTIONS

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

on of upper rooms at 10 A few weeks ago I was invited by Limerick. agents, which was held on board Supt. P. Colleran. solr.), appeared for the plaintiff, their new steamer, the "Caronia," James O'Dea, 15 Colbert Avenue, Engineer, and Capt. C. J. Hanrahan, dant was represented by at Southampton. Hearing that I Janesboro', Limerick, in reply to Harbour Master, were the officials Mr. J. Kenny, B.L. (instructed by was from Limerick a London Supt. Colleran, said he was a cutter in attendance. Fitzgerald said that the travel agent took me aside and employed by Messrs. Cannock and defendant was in occupation of asked did I ever hear of a famous Co. He was father of the dead boy. upper rooms at No. 10 Mount Limerick women named Ada who was 3 years and 4 months. He the defendant occupied was above what that gentleman, who is Mr. missing.

Court. The tenancy was deter- had to tell was worth recording I mined in February, 1949, by a asked him would he put it on paper notice to quit, but this was dis- and send it on to Limerick after entire night and all next day. me. He has just done so, and I take the liberty of enclosing it here-

Yours faithfully. MAURICE P. RIORDAN Riordan's Travel Agent 62 O'Connell St., Lime April 6th, 1949.

My recollections of Miss Ade Rehan are rather sketchy, it is some forty years since I last I started as a junior in the travel who were founded in 1849 and had The plaintiff gave evidence along offices in the west end of London This firm represented the old White Star and American Lines and were to the defendant, but said he was appointed agents to attend to the walking and did not appear to be landing of dogs in England from abroad and conveyance to quarantine kennels. In the course of busithat the defendant was an aged, ness about 1900 my firm were apcears of age. With her lived her Barrington and Miss Ada Rehan 3,30 p.m. witness was walking by aughter and her grand son, the were sisters. Both Sir Eric and the fence in Mr. J. McDonagh's made public sometime. latter being the child of another Lady Barrington always met Miss field, about 50 yards from the daughter who was married twice Rehan at the steamer and she used railway line. and who lived in Texas. For the past ten years she had been repast ten years she had been receiving daily injections for diabetes.

to stay with them in England. This Supt. Colleran—What were you impressions, That having been looking at?—A bird's nest.

done, we would be in a better positive daily injections for diabetes. Since she got notice to quit she had travelled out and home on the the fence what did you see?-I public. sought alternative accommodation American Line and was very par-saw a child lying under the bush. in many places in the city without tial to the old "Philadelphia," parture a week or two in order to sail in the "Philadephia," as she was so well knewn to the officers it was like home. The American Line sailed from New York on Saturday with grass around?—Yes, and called at Plymouth on the following Saturday as regular as foot, clockwork and after dischaging had to decide the case was that of mails and pasengers proceeded to Southampton via a French pert.

"LIKE HOME."

called early in time to board the The agents were in touch was no bruising. with the steamer and the tender early hours of the morning round since the date he was missing?early, but it was worth it to see the date. steamer coming round the head. Coroner-What was the cause of Miss Mary Hayes, whose death land in the early morning mist death?-I believe shock, following occurred at her residence, Thomas The "Philadelphia" was not a exposure. steamer by present day reached an advanced age standards, about 11,000 tons, but (writes our Rathkeale correspon- she was built like a yacht with clip- evidence, said the case was a very She was an aunt of the late per bows and was steady for her sad one. The little boy had straved

M.O., Limerick City, a always a lot of excitement with the down under a tree. disposition, the late Miss Hayes was Rehan to the officers of the ship, suspicion of foul play. a lady whose main concern was with whom she was a great favourher domestic and ite. This was in the days before death was due to shock following spiritual duties. In this respect she the films reached the importance exposure. was a model Irish woman of that they have to-day with such publicity the race at all times ings and farewells given to a great offer sincere sympathy to the or abroad, actress like Miss Ada Rehan vere father and mother on their sad loss, VERY EASY TO GET UN WITH. After landing at Plymouth we extend comfort and consolation to returned to London by rail and to express his warm thanks to the or neighbour when in then to the dogs' kennels, where I Garda, military and civilians who handed over the dog in the busket The remains were removed to St. and obtained a receipt. Miss Rehan Church, Rathkeale, on and Lady Barrington always stayed to locate him, and he was deeply Saturday evening and the funeral, behind at the kennels to complete grateful to everybody concerned. which was very large and repre- matters after I left and I have place to the shrewd suspicion that the dog did cemetery on Sunday. The not stay there long. It is even at the graveside were read likely that when Miss Rehan left Ruddle, P.P. (relative), she had with her a dog that was Very Rev. W. J. Canon the very "image" of her own. Even-V.F.; Very Rev. T. tually after many years, much to Canon Wall, P.P.; Very Rev. T. my regret, the dog died and my Rev. M. trips came to an end. Miss Ada Rey. P. Lynch, P.P.; Rehan was very easy and pleasant Rev. D. O'Callaghan, P.P.; Rev. M. to get on with and made friends is touring the country lecturing on P.P.; Rev. T. Costello, quickly, I am still in the travel and "The Message of Fatima," shipping business and, looking accorded a fine reception in the back over the years, those early Royal Cinema last night. yearly trips to meet Miss Rehan and her dog stand out in my mind M. Canon Molony, P.P., V.F., who

PUBLIC SYMPATHY

Patrick; all members standing as for the parents of the little a mark of respect. — C. Collopy, Hen Secretary. (p) Saturday last when hundreds of

Found

STORY AT INQUEST

Dear Sir-Last January your missing since Sunday, 13th March, The other members present were:-

Limerick at a meeting of travel the proceedings were conducted by

THE SEARCH.

Superintendent-Did you carry out a search ?-We searched the Superintendent-The search continued over a week?-Yes, by more favourable rates, the Garda, military and civilians. Continuing, the witness said he saw the remains of his child at vantage of the port. Barrington's Hospital on Thursday him by the clothing, which was the time as when he left home.

Limerick, stated that on Sunday 13th March, he left his house and went into Limerick at about 6.45 p.m. He came along by the rallway line to the terminus, Near met her. When I was a young man the crossing gates, at Tobin's Road, he saw a child going towards the and shipping business with the firm permanent way. It was a boy of about four years of age, wearing a corduroy trousers,

Witness did not see anybody with the child, which was just

HOW BODY WAS FOUND,

Patrick Fitzgerald, 21 Kelly's infirm lady, daily receiving injectroached to make arrangements for Range, stated that he was employed merce on the question of obtaining tions for diabetes. The only alter- the landing of a dog, belonging to by Mr. M. Fitzgibbon, Ballysimon financial assistance in the carrying native accommodation he could Miss Ada Rehan, from New York Road. On Thursday he went with out of the port development scheme. This was arranged by Sir Eric Mr. Fitzgibbon and a Mr. Lysaght He suggested that the report from Barrington, who, I believe, was to repair some fencing between then connected with the Foreign the Ballysimon road and the rail- Committee. The defendant said she was 74 Office, and I understood that Lady way line at Crossagala, At about

How was it lying?-It was lying Witness added that he called the wo men, and Mr. Lysaght went to report to John Street Garda Supt. Colleran-Was it easy to

Was he lying under the bush Was the grass high?-About a

DOCTOR'S EVIDENCE

Dr. Frank Crowe, House Surgeon Barrington's Hospital, deposed to and myself would travel down by examining the body of the deceased train to Plymouth and stay the child. The body was badly denight at the Duke of Cornwall's composed and there was a wound Hotel, giving instructions to be on the left leg below the heel joint, Superintendent-There was no tender going out to the "Philad-evidence of foul play?-No. There went out in time to wait the dead?-At least two to three weeks. arrival, which was usually in the Superintendent-Could he be dead about 6 a.m. This meant getting up Yes. I could not give an accurate

This concluded the evidence. The Coroner, reviewing

Rev. Michael Hayes, P.P., Ardagh; size. As soon as the anchored in from his home, as young children e late Rev. James Hayes, of the the sound the tender was along-will. It was quite possible that he Mission to China, who side and we went on board to meet strayed along the railway line from died recently in the U.S.A., and Dr. Miss Rehan and her dog, which the Railway Station, where one witness saw him, and then got into who was present at the I used to take a basket for the the field at Ballysimon. Night Dr. Richard dog to be landed and there was came on him and he apparently lay was also present. greetings and fussing over the dog been an exhaustive search, and the e quiet and retiring and then the farewells by Miss evidence showed that there was no

The Coroner said he wished to Supt. Colleran and the foreman

Mr. James O'Dea said he wished helped in the search for his son. Everything possible had been done to Dublin and Cork.

MESSAGE OF FATIMA

LECTURE IN LIMERICK

Mr. David Kearney, Cork, who He was introduced by Very Rev.

COLLINS (Eighth Anniversary)— as a very pleasant recollection of paid him a high tribute.

Your prayers are requested for the an almost forgotten past.

The lecture, which was The lecture, which was illustrated by lantern slides, was of absorbing interest, and Mr. Kearney detailed all the impressive things that have been said of Fatima and the miraculous events associated with it. A report of the lecture wil atting to the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of the late of the late of the late of sympathisers from the fine of the late of th

CHILD'S DEATH HARBOUR BOARD

Interview With

Minister THE FUTURE OF THE PORT

An inquest concerning the death man, presided at the meeting of the Mr. M. W. McGuire, B.C., Chairof Patrick O'Dea, who had been Limerick Harbour Board to-day. paper carried some interesting de and whose body, was found in a Ald. D. Bourke, T.D.; Senator M. tails about Ada Rehan, the famous field at Ballysimon on Thursday O'Dwyer, Co.C.; Ald. J. Carew; ase heard by him at Limerick Limerick-born actress, from a lady last, was held in Barrington's B.C.; T. Meskell, T. Walshe, James in Foynes whose mother remem- Hospital on Friday evening last by O'Keeffe, Edward Browne, P Dr. J. P. Clery, Coroner for East Whelan, B.C.; P. E. O'Malley, S. J. disused building site near her home K. Roycroft, M. Sheahan, A. fount Kennett, occupied by Mrs. the Cunard Line to represent The Coroner sat with a jury and Goodwin, T. J. Loughrey, M. J. Keyes, T.D.

Mr. D. O'Brien, Manager; Mr. T. F. O'Sullivan, B.E., Harbour

SHIPPING CONTROLS NOW

In connection with a complaint Limerick, under an Rehan, and when I said that I did last saw his son alive at 1.30 p.m. made at a previous meeting regardagreement of September 29th, 1949, he regaled me with a most inter- on Sunday, March 13th. He was ing the obtaining of unfavourable in writing. The tenancy was a esting account of his contacts with weekly one at a rent of 10/2 and her when at the beginning of his the valuation of the two bedrooms, her when at the beginning of his and on his return at 7.30 it was and Commerce wrote stating that diningroom and kitchenette which business career. As I felt that reported to him that his child was shipping controls were now off. The Limerick Chamber of Commerce, the letter added, had taken the question of freights up directly with the British Chamber of Shipping and the Department would cooperate in securing for Limerick > off we hope it will be to the ad-Manager-I think it will. A coal well. evening, and was able to identify importer told me that he has no difficulty in chartering small vessels Mr. O'Dwyer-We could adjourn > > new freights will re-act on the trade of the port. Chairman-That would be a wise course to adopt. I think we could of the pumps, also adjourn the consideration of a letter from Irish Shipping, Ltd., in which they state that they are not concerned with the development of constal traffic. It was accordingly agreed to adjourn consideration of these matters be delayed for hours. to a future meeting.

DEPUTATION TO MINISTER.

The Manager reported that a dethe Minister for Industry and Comthe deputation be considered in

Mr. Whelan-Is there any need to Chairman-Yes, but we would like to be able to give our feelings and beneath tion to deal with the matter in It was accordingly decided to go into Committee.

SERIOUS ISSUE FOR THE PURT

Irish Shipping Ltd. wrote stating that it was necessary to charge 16s per ton extra on steel rods brought to Limerick for Irish Wire Products. The grain rates were the same as those obtaining on the open market. Chairman-This extra charge applies to Limerick and not to Cork, which means that the Port of Limerick could be bye-passed.

Mr. Russell said that the issue of Limerick. There should be no discrimination between first Grade Martinstown.

Mr. Roycroft - There are many general cargo to Limerick. Chairman-I agree with Mr. Roycroft there are difficulties, difficulties | classes. that affect Limerick merchants, I'm greatly afraid of the future of the has happened lately has upset that have only one national port so as where he was ordained in 1902. to ensure a longer haul for the rail-

uting centre.

The Manager said that it would Newcastle West, The jury returned a verdict that merchandise, would be brought ted parish priest there. Last year no restriction whatsoever. We held to Limerick.

could not be justified.

AFFECTED FIRM MAKING REPRESENTATIONS.

td. on the whole question of port in the matter of charges, then, ment to the dignity of Canon. 'm afraid, the port will suffer an ster for Industry and Commerce.

LONDON DOCK STRIKE

The unloading of more than 40 hips, many of which contained meat and other types of perishable clergy and laity at the removal goods, was seriously affected in of the remains from the parochial London to-day, when almost 7,000 house to Bulgaden Church, yester-

TENEMENT FIRE FOUND DEAD

Child In Well Shaft Number Of Families END OF FIGHT TO SAVE GIRL FORTUNATE DISCOVERY IN

A message from New York, received to-day, states that the threeyear-old girl, Kathy Fiscus, who fell down a well shaft at San Marino, California, last Friday, was found hours of yesterday morning would dead early this morning. While playing with other children on a Kathy stepped on to the weed-covunteers worked frantically to res-The child's body was found 90 feet state that she was dead for many Thousands had collected at the scene of the operations and offers of tally discovered, it is believed that on the marching right-or on the below the surface. It was covered with about 3 feet of water. Doctors

Yesterday rescuers reported that they were only a few shovels of earth from the shaft, and that it would not take long with an electric Chairman-Now that controls are cutter to penetrate the casing. Firemen pumped air down the 230 ft. the ground flour would have been

An underground water level was struck just as the rescuers reached Martin Cowhey, Waller's Well, this matter until we see how the the casing. For a while pumps reduced the flow but auddenly the water began to outstrip the action

> One worker reported that the supervisor said that unless the flow > was reduced rescue operations might The rescuers were hopeful that ment failed to keep the water down. stayed through the night with news- grams and the sale of stamps from 9. When displayed on a platform the light of floodlights. All over the United States thouand of callers besieged newspaper mal services. There will be a geneoffices asking hopefully: "Is she still ral delivery in all rural areas.

At the request of the doctors the thousands gathered at the shaft diswere greatly distressed.

LOSS TO DIOCESE

The death occurred Parochial House, Bulgaden, mallock, Co. Limerick, on Saturday night, of Very Rev. Michael was a very serious one for the Port J. Canon Leahy, P.P., V.F., of the joint parish of Bulgaden and

An eminently zealous and devoted priest, his death is a loss to the dio economic difficulties in bringing cese of Limerick. Of an exceedingly kind, sociable and charitable nature, he was highly popular with all

Born at Garriencooney House, Port of Limerick and nothing that Rathluirc, Co. Limerick, seventy years ago, the late Canon Leahy Protestants in Spain have been conhas happened lately has upset that years ago, the late Canon Deany tradicted by a Welsh Methodist the right hand and hold it over the in Limerick a virite tation who waited on him last week C.B.S., Rathluirc, and commenced minister, Rev. R. Bryn Williams, heart, Women should salute by that the whole question of the port his studies for the priesthood at who accompanied the Rhos (Wrex- placing the hand over the heart, was bound up with the general St. Munchin's Diocesan College, ham) Male Voice Choir on a tour The salute to the Flag when pass- movement. The chie transport of the country. It may Limerick, and completed them at there (says "Catholic Notebook,"

After his ordination he minisways. Should that happen it will be tered for a few years on the Engdisastrous for Limerick as a distrib- lish mission in London. On being recalled to the diocese of Limerick, he ministered as curate at be most unfair for Irish Shipping appointed parish priest of Clouncargo, between grain and general den in 1940, when he was appoin-

of Limerick.

HAD MANY INTERESTS crimination in tonnage rates, but if great interest in the national about it." Irish Shipping Ltd. had to bring a movement and was judge of the part cargo to Limerick there were District Court during the troubled conomic reasons, having regard to period. Well known in athletic the fact that the port was 60 miles circles he was a keen sportsman inland, for an increased freight, an excellent horseman and recog-Cross-channel cargo rates were nised as a very good shot. He was higher to Limerick than they were very interested in the G.A.A. games, gave them full support and G.A.A. Club.

He was also interested in Ald. Carew said that his firm Muintir na Tire movement and fortnight. (Irish Wire Products) were making was responsible for the formation representations to Irish Shipping of guilds of that organisation in drowned in the Shannon, but, so National Flag. Bulgaden and Martinstown, of far, the body has not been reboth of which guilds he was covered. Chairman-If the Port of Lime- President, and both of which made rick is to suffer as an ocean-going him presentations on his appoint-

He was nephew of the late Right Rev. Dean Canty, P.P., Dromin; The matter was not further dis- brother of Very Rev. Patrick cussed and the meeting went into Canon Leahy, Poole, Dorset, Eng-Committee to hear report from depu- land, and of the late Very Rev. tation who had waited in the Mini- David Leahy. He was uncle of the late Rev. Denis Leahy, During his term in Bulgaden he > novations to Bulgaden and Marinstown churches REMOVAL OF REMAINS There was a large attendance of

The widespread sympathy felt son, son, g. as for the parents of the poy, Patrick O'Dea, Colbert boy, Patrick O'Dea, Colbert National Amalgamated Stevedores' parents from Barungton's Hosting Home, Tivoli Terrace, Dun the funeral from Barrington's Hosting Host ## imerick Postal District:-No delivery in rural areas. A gene-

DISTRICT

Concerned

TIME

BRIGADE ON THE SCENE.

bed for a drink of water and then.

WOULD BE IN SERIOUS

PLIGHT.

ion by a resident.

were at work.

ourned completely.

emergency call was sent out for lar- will be made at 9,30 p.m., and the against, say, a wall or other backputation from the Board waited on ger pumps when the smaller equip. city letter boxes will be collected in ground, the green should be on the thank Providence. connection therewith. Radio and television reporters be open for the acceptance of tele-horizontal position.

sending up rubble from their 24-or orphans' pensions falling due for be dipped by way of salute or comgo into Committee? It must be 30-inch working-space by bucket by payment on Good Friday, the 15th pliment except to the Sacred Host CITY COUNCIL. April, will be paid on or after during religious ceremonies or to Thursday, the 14th April. Easter Saturday, 16th April-Nor-monies.

will be no delivery of letters or 11. The Flag should always be despatch.

telephone service will be provided. lowered. British pensions and allowances falling due for payment on Monday, any position below the top of the the 18th April, will be paid on or staff, but never below the middle hilge because of th ifter Thursday, the 14th April.

A LIE NAILED NO PERSECUTION IN

Easter Monday.

Allegations of the persecution of salute, Men in civilian attire

In a letter to Councillor Leo passed by. Where more than one Wright, of Liverpool, he says:-"Not only were we unmolested but also given every assistance and Flag. When the National Anthem beauties of their own Bulgaden, Dromin, Croom and did not interfere at all, and I had before being every freedom to mix and talk with Flag, stand at attention and salute different parts of the the ordinary people there in streets it, remaining at the salute until the in this connection a m Ltd. to increase the tonnage rate to cagh about 1934. He ministered and shops, etc. I was also allowed Irish Wire Products when a full there until he returned to Bulga- to speak in public and on the radio many times, and in Spanish, with he was appointed Canon of the our service in the English (Pro-worn or frayed that it is no longer Chairman-If that were done it cathedral chapter of the diocese testant) Church at Barcelona and fit for display, it should not be used were assisted by Canon Johnson. If in any manner implying disrespect, | control, could serve a there was any persecution, surely Canon Johnson would have told me

BELIEVED DROWNED tooned over doorways or arches, THAT PENNY FAR

was President of the Bulgaden Nora Kelly, Foynes, who is missing from her place of employment should it be draped over the platthe in the city since last Saturday form,

It is believed that she has been

FARM DWELLING

An outbreak of fire occurred at trees or other obstacles. Dromina, Charleville, at 7 o'clock, esterday morning in which the in the open, only between sunrise with Dublin and Corl wellinghouse of Mr. Michael and sunset except on the occasion possible. carried out improvements and re-Hishon was completely destroyed of public meetings, processions or Rathluirc Fire Brigade, under funerals, when it may be displayed

dance, but their efforts were unavailing.

NATIONAL FLAG It's Proper Use

GENERAL GUIDE TO THE PUBLIC

The following information as to the proper use and respect of A fire which started in the hall our National Flag has been of a tenement house at 1, John officially issued as a general guide Square, Limerick, in the early colour of green, white and orange probably have had serious conse--Article 7 of the Constitution. quences but for its timely detec-2. The Flag, which should normally be displayed on a staff, should that gas will be in a be rectangular in shape, the width demand in the immedi At 4.5 a.m., the City Fire Brigade being twice its depth. The three was summoned to the scene, and colours-green, white and orange on arrival there with a full crew, should be of equal size. Provided the installation of Her playmates raised the alarm it was seen that the under portion the correct proportions are ob- plant is being pushed and for approximately 60 hours vola short time the fire was got under any convenient size. The green control and finally extinguished. should be next the staff, the white It appears that the fire was discovered when a resident got out of thest from the staff.

smelt smoke emerging from the PRECEDENCE OF NATIONAL FLAG.

basement. The alarm was immudiately given to a number of families living in the house and in flown above the National Flag. 3. No flag or pennant should be a very short time, the Brigade 4. When the Flag is carried with nother flag or flags it should be monies necessitating Had the fire not been so accidenhelp had come from all parts of the the house would have been en- left of an observer to whom the veloped in flames in quick time. flags are approaching. 5. When the National Flag is portion of this issue Thus, the big number of people crossed staffs, the National Flag full details of the prodisplayed with another flag from interesting official ac in it would have been should be on the right, i.e., the Flag. This article is placed in a very serious plight, flag's own right or on the left of and rescue work would have been an observer facing the flags, and tative explanation of seriously hampered in view of the its staff should be in front of the very important questi probability that the staircase on staff of the other flag.

6. Where either an even or an dd number of flags is flown in line on staffs of equal height, the National Fing should be first on LIMERICK POSTAL the right of the line (i.e., on the observer's laft as he faces the the incidence of notil Where, however, an odd for last month as co number of fings is displayed from February. For the staffs grouped so that there is one staff in the centre and higher than HOLIDAY ARRANGEMENTS the others, the National Flag previous month, 36. should be displayed from the staff reported, mainly of d The following are the Good Fri. so placed.

lay and Easter arrangements for 7. Normally only one National Flag should be displayed in each Good Friday, 15th April-There group of flags or at each location. will be a morning delivery of let. In all cases, the National Flag maladies, such as typh ters and parcels in the city area, should be in the place of honour. there was no water in the well. An ral night mail despatch of letters either vertically or horizontally right (observer's left) in the ver- been very free from The Public Office (Cecil St.) will tical position or uppermost in the papermen, and about 25,000 people, 9 a.m. to 10.30 a.m. Continuous the National Flag should be above dition of things will telephone service will be provided, and behind the speaker's desk. as the rescuers took turns to dig, Old age pensions and widows' and 10. The National Flag should not the dead during memorial cere-

HOISTING AND LOWERING

parcels in the district, but a gene- hoisted rapidly and lowered slowly question of house ren ral night mail despatch from the and ceremoniously. In raising or provoke a lively disc persed when the little body was Head Office at 9.30 p.m. will be lowering, it should not be allowed Birr Council wants to brought to the surface. The parents afforded. The city letter boxes will to touch the ground, When being mental authority to be collected in connection with the hoisted to half-mast, the Flag should first be brought to the peak The Public Office (Cecil St.) will of the staff and then lowered to of new houses can be open for the sale of stamps and the half-mast position. It should the acceptance of telegrams from again be brought to the peak of the a.m. to 10.30 a.m. A continuous the staff before it is finally (Note:-A flag is at half-mast in point of the staff. As a general The Post Office Savings Bank guide, the half-mast position may will be closed on Good Friday and be taken as that where the top of the flag is the depth of the flag language." below the top of the staff).

SALUTING THE FLAG. 12. When the Flag is being hois- that the comhdhail ed or lowered, or when it is pass- satisfactory results. ing by in a parade, all present hould face the Flag, stand at attention and salute. Persons in uniform who normally salute with he hand should give the hand AN OIGE. transport of the country. It may Limerick, and completed them at happen—I don't know—that we will St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, formation Bureau Dublin). ing by in a parade is rendered when Oige is to provide opp salute is held until the Flag has National Flag is carried, the salute to inculcate a love of should be given only to the leading to make known to the is played in the presence of the Flag, all present should face the #### last note of the music. WORN-OUT FLAG. 13. When the Flag has become so out-of-doors, has n

PRACTICES TO AVOID.

14. The National Flag should never be used as a decoration. In particular it should not be fesled in a bow knot, or tied in a Bunting of the National has not restored the Colours may, however, be used for lecorative purposes. 15. When displayed on a platform, the Flag should not be used shorter stages. The to cover the speaker's desk, nor the penny fare-so far

16. No lettering or picture of any kind should be placed on the is now

17. The Flag should not be draped on a train, car or boat; it should not be carried flat, but should always be carried aloft and free penny fare could not xcept when used to drape a coffin : such an occasion the green should be at the head of the coffin. 18. The Flag should not at any stage be let touch the ground, trail would be well advised water, or become chtangled in penny stages in Limer

19. The Flag should be displayed, Captain D. Sheehan, were in atten- for the duration of such functions.

REPUBLIC ACT

increasing by leans and the year ended 31st

1. The National Flag is the triorder to meet this is completed in the cor

TOWN TO

production can be do

NATIONAL FLAG. vails as to the status the National Flag.

A DECREASE.

the number was 21 able to children, call mention. - There is absence of the r fever and poliomyel paralysis). For thi fying state of thing many years and it is that this highly sat

A statutory meeting

Council will be held t a miscellaneous agend from the Birr Urban (

Surprise is expresse

Crescent is absurdly

the routes are short w victory for Garryowe