

minutes then had to be pressed service.
 A lawn tennis game will be in wing in the near future, and so all of clubs are at the moment organising and planning for an eventful season. The Shelbourne Lawn Tennis Club, are adding further facilities to their premises at Farnone. These include a supper club room and kitchen. Under the very capable guidance of Joe Han, the Club's Chairman, may I hope that "Shels" will have the best look this season!
 Now that I am voicing the sentiments of all local sportsmen when in the expressions of sympathy on the death of the Limerick team-manager, Joe McAleer. Important soccer matches throughout the country, over the weekend, were marked by two minutes of silence as a mark of respect to memory.

of the guard were Lieut. J. South, Lieut. J. O'Sullivan and Lieut. M. O'Grady. On their return to barracks the men were warmly congratulated by Capt. K. Larkin, O/C, 49th Batt.
 Routine weekly training was resumed on Wednesday night. All ranks are reminded to parade regularly from now on. The Section Competition takes place in the near future and later the Platoon Competition. N.C.O.'s, are requested to do their utmost to keep attendance at full strength.
 The Batt. needs more recruits, and every Volunteer on the effective roll is encouraged to bring along his friends.
 All members of "B" Coy. will parade at Sarsfield Barracks next Sunday, April 24th, at 11.00 hours sharp for miniature range practice. Every man in the Coy. should avail of this opportunity to familiarise himself with range practice procedure. Dress will consist of uniform, boots, leggings and web belt.
 Once again we remind members that full attendance is necessary to qualify for the Lahinch Summer Training Camp.

DEATH OF MISS M. LARKIN

It is with feelings of deep regret we record the recent death of Miss Mary Larkin, 1 Military Place, O'Connell Avenue. Of a very charming personality, the deceased young lady was held in very high esteem by all who knew her, and her death at the early age of 21 years, came as a shock to her wide circle of relatives and friends.
 We join with the citizens in extending our sympathy to her bereaved mother and the other members of the family.
 The number of people who attended at the removal of the remains to St. Michael's Church and on the following day accompanied the remains to their last resting place at Mount St Lawrence Cemetery was of very large dimensions.
 The prayers at the graveside were recited by her three uncles—the Very Rev. Fr. Richard Kennedy, London; Very Rev. Thomas Kennedy, Dalgan Park; and Very Rev. Fr. George Waring, Liverpool, assisted by the parish clergy.

han, at left-back. Jimmy Madden did nothing wrong in goal and, in fact, made some fine saves under heavy pressure.
 The half-back line, however, excelled itself. Sean Collins gave a surprisingly great account of himself at centre-half, and he never allowed an otherwise clever centre-forward in D. Manahan any latitude. Even the big man of the opposing team, S. McCarthy, tried to wear down Collins when he moved from centre-half to centre-forward, but it was just unavailing. Phons. Quinlivan and Tom Madigan must also share in the praise of "Cais." Their stern tackles knocked much of the apparent cleverness from the feet of the opposing insides—Rea and Keating. Doney Healy was the seasoned campaigner in the attack, and his presence was needed to curb the wildness which was shown in the shooting early on. In those early minutes chances fell to the less experienced players in the attack, but when that golden opportunity knocked only once to Doney in the 19th minute, he coolly accepted it. It was a grand goal off Martin mitter
