

was appointed
not discussed

E HILL
that immediate
ken to improve
ng Patrickswell
rticularly near
ere so many ac-
d. He referred
ices posted near
aid that these
ecause "no mat-
the Red House
He suggested
ad improvement
ould be immedi-
implemented.
d that the En-
scheme as sug-
amara.
usly adopted by

GRATUITIES
ry submitted to
from the County
n Committee re-
of a marriage
nestic Economy
ary Hayes (nee
P. Quish asked if ged to pay these
ager said they
these payments
privileged class.
he appropriate
ed to introduce
on to do away
local authorities
these gratuities.
as unanimously
ussion.

STOP IT
merick Leader")

der how many
ed kith and kin
responsible—in-
for the dissem-
f dirt by their
ertain English
a boy recently
of news cuttings
orce cases, and
th which should
ide the walls of
home. I hope
taken by some
a curtain against
so-called news-

"PADRAIG."

expression of opinion that the formation of such a Council was necessary.

DESERVED TRIBUTES

LATE MR. P. O'MARA

Tributes were paid to the memory of the late Mr. Patrick O'Mara, the last of the Mayor's Serjeants, at the meeting of the Corporation on Monday night.

The Mayor (Mr. M. B. O'Malley, solr.), who presided, said that the late Mr. O'Mara had over 50 years service with the Corporation. During that period he was one of the four Serjeants-at-Mace—all of whom were now dead. The deceased was a most courteous and affable gentleman, and his death had removed from amongst them a figure and a personality they all admired and respected. He proposed that the meeting be adjourned as a mark of respect, and that a vote of sympathy be conveyed to Mr. Barry O'Mara, son of the deceased.

Ald. Bourke, T.D., seconding, said that the late Mr. O'Mara was a very fine old gentleman. They would all miss his kindly smile and genial disposition.

Mr. P. J. Cusack, associating himself with the tributes paid to the memory of the deceased, said that he knew Mr. O'Mara before he entered the service of the Corporation. He was an upright, honourable and God-fearing man.

Mr. P. O'Connell said that he desired to endorse all that had been said about the deceased.

Mr. J. J. Dundon, solr. (Deputy Manager), on behalf of the officials and himself, associated himself with the vote of sympathy.

The meeting then adjourned.

KNOCKADERRY CEILIDHE

The ceilidhe held at the Hall, Knockaderry, on Sunday night, under the auspices of the Cloun-cagh Branch of the Gaelic League, was a great success (writes our Knockaderry correspondent). The camogie players who played at Cloun-cagh in the afternoon, some from far away Ahane, were among the visitors, and the great gathering seemed to enjoy themselves in real old-time style.

position, were removed to the Morgue at Barrington's Hospital, where a post mortem was carried out by Dr. F. Crowe, House Surgeon.

The body has since been identified as that of Mona Kelly, a native of Foynes. She was employed as a maid in a city hotel and on Saturday, 2nd inst., she disappeared from her place of employment.

The Coroner for East Limerick, Dr. J. P. Clery, who will hold an inquest next week, has issued a certificate authorising the burial of the remains.

IRISH CITIZENS

HOUSE OF COMMONS

MOTION

A motion has been tabled in the House of Commons suggesting that a Select Committee be appointed to consider the legal position of citizens of the Republic of Ireland "who are honourable members of this House and of those who hold office in Great Britain."

No date has been fixed for a discussion on the motion, which was tabled by three Conservatives and one Nat.-Lab.

Sir W. Smithers (Lib.) has given notice that he will ask the Foreign Secretary on Monday next if he will state the position of citizens of the Republic of Ireland in regard to their employment under the Crown or in Government departments.

DIED IN NEW YORK

Mr. Martin O'Rahilly, New York, a native of Bridgetown, who died suddenly while on his way to work last week, was brother of Very Rev. Canon O'Rahilly, P.P., Toomevara; Mr. William O'Rahilly, Dublin, and of Mrs. E. Pearse, Limerick (writes our Killaloe correspondent). Aged 66 years, he leaves a widow and six children. Bridgetown residents in New York, attended the wake and funeral.

NEW RATE STRUCK

At the meeting of the Corporation on Monday night, the Mayor (Mr. M. B. O'Malley, solr.) presiding, it was unanimously decided to strike a rate of 34/6 for the service of the ensuing financial year.

the necessity for rural science.

The C.E.O. said candidates for the rural science in was so low because attended the first that subject, rarely complete the course in He promised to ha to eliminate this c

The Committee, of Mr. Mackey, un ated the Chairma to the Irish Voca Association's Grou ation Committee (C ational Panel) Se the coming year.

ARRAN T

ONE BODY

Our Dublin corr The body of one from Arran, miss Sunday, was recov body is that of Pa with his two cou Michael Lacey, at the mainland a Easter Sunday.

The three men rach from the is to attend Mass Later in the day th land to go back home, since wher been seen or hear

The body of F found wedged betw the seafront near where they set Inishark. A close maintained for t two other victims.

DRAMA AN

ENTERTA

At St. Patrick's Sunday night, th Cumann Gaelac produced their t "Wind From The a great reception astic audience (v collogher correspo At Dromcollogh a concert and ment was given i G.A.A. Club, and ment also proved joyable.