PLEDGE ADMINISTERED.

After administering the Sacrament of Confirmation to the children, his Lordship gave them a pledge until they reached the age of 25 years, and complimented them, their parents and teachers on their sound knowledge of Christian Doctrine. He also imparted Apostolic Benediction.

The teachers in attendance were: Rev. Sister Dympna; Rev. Sister Emmanuel, Miss Searson, Messrs. C. Randles, M. J. O'Sullivan and J. Body; Rev. Sister Bride and Rev. Sister Alphonsus.

The children were very neatly attired for the occasion and were a credit to their parents and teachers.

FIANNA FAIL ACTIVITIES

Senator Martin O'Dwyer, Herbertstown, Knocklong, paid an official visit to Ballylanders recently in connection with the organising of the Fianna Fail Clubs in the area (writes our Ballylanders correspondent). Representatives and delegates from Ballylanders, Kinfinane, Glenbrohane, Anglesboro' and other local districts attended.

Mr. P. McGuire, M.C.C., was chairman, and he stressed the importance of club officials and members showing more enthusiasm and general attendance at meetings.

THE MAY FLY

The May fly is now rising on Lough Derg (writes our Killaloe correspondent) and the dapping season will be in full swing early in the coming week.
