GLIN MAN'S DEATH

The death some days ago of Mr. Patrick Mangan, Glin and Limerick, was deeply regretted by his numerous relatives and friends (writes our Glin correspondent). Mr. Mangan's family, an old Glin one, was for generations connected with the trade of Glin. Deceased was father of Mr. John Mangan, Customs and Excise, Limerick, and father-in-law of Mr. Michael O'Connor, noted Glin football player. Mr. Mangan was largely identified with the public life of Glin. He was Treasurer of Glin Gaelic League and Fianna Fail Cumann, and a prominent member of Glin Parish Council. His funeral to Kilferus Churchyard after Solemn Requiem Mass was large and representative. Deepest sympathy is offered his family and relatives.

The Boys' Choir of the Limerick Christian Brothers' Schools, Sexton Street, rendered a fine programme of songs in Irish and English at the Limerick Savoy on Sunday night last.
