

Donnell—The striking of rate was the cause of all an—That may be so, but like to remind Lord that the affairs of this are well looked after, in- of any organisation, Young or otherwise. They should conducted themselves in a manner.

Donnell—They are entitled their organisation and y do good for themselves, are young and they have ience in these matters.

an—I am not against the farmers, but they should be careful and conduct them-

Namara—I don't think any of the Young Farmers' was responsible for what l that day.

ish—We helped the Young every way we possibly d we always sent out our rs to assist them, but they conduct themselves in a manner. If I thought they veloping into anything like iversal political party the ee would be opposed to our rs attending their meetings. scussion then ended.

FINE ACTING BY LOCALS

All this week in the Playhouse the School of Dramatic Art, attached to The College Players group, is presenting J. M. Barrie's comedy, "Quality Street."

The production, which is in the capable hands of Mr. P. J. Fitzgibbon, attains a high standard of excellence, and it is another triumph for the "School."

The young students of the dramatic art show keen enterprise and talent, and a well-balanced cast give of their best in a splendidly staged production.

The final performance of the run will be given on next Sunday night.

DEATH OF MR. H. O'BRIEN, SEXTON STREET

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Henry O'Brien, of 24 Sexton Street, Limerick, which took place on the 22nd ultimo after a short illness. Deceased was a member of a very national family, and was a brother of the late Thomas O'Brien and of the late Mrs. Wm. O'Connor. He was a very devout Catholic and was a member of many of the Orders in the city. He passed away fortified by the rites of the Church, of which he was such a devoted member. His remains were removed to St. Michael's Church at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening, 23rd April, and the interment took place next day in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. There was a large attendance representative of all classes of the community.

To his widow, sisters and relatives, and to Sister Marie Celine, Convent of Our Lady, Bowden Vale, Cheshire, England, we offer our deepest sympathy.
