

LIMERICK AND C.Y.M.S. Coming Ceremony

A SUGGESTION

At the Annual Convention in Dublin on Saturday of the Catholic Young Men's Society, a discussion took place on the final arrangements for the ceremony to take place at Limerick on June 19, at which a commemorative plaque will be unveiled on the wall of the house in Athlunkard Street where the Society's first meeting is supposed to have been held a hundred years ago.

A Ciborium suitably inscribed will be presented to Very Rev. Father Lee, P.P., St. Mary's, Limerick. There will be a procession to the Church.

The Annual Report stated that the number of branches affiliated is 111, with total membership of approximately 11,600.

"MATTER OF REGRET."

It is a matter of very great regret, the Report continues, that no branch of the Society has been established in Limerick City, the home of its birth.

Rev. Father Morris, Spiritual Director, Ballylanders Branch of the C.Y.M.S., presided at a meeting held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall on Monday evening last (writes our Ballylanders correspondent). Other members in attendance were:—Messrs. P. McGuire, Co.C.; J. J. Daly, Ml. McGrath, Wm. Upton, Guard McCarthy and Mr. W. J. Crawford, Secretary.

The Secretary read an invitation from Rathkeale Branch to participate in the centenary celebrations to be held in Limerick on June 19th, and the meeting decided that five or six members would represent the local Branch.

A SUGGESTION.

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir—A good deal of attention has been directed lately to the C.Y.M.S., and comment has been made that no branch exists here in Limerick, where the movement was founded by Dean O'Brien a hundred years ago.

Now, I do know that the question of re-starting the Society was certainly discussed in at least one quarter in the year 1939, but for one or two reasons this was postponed and then came the war, which ended the possibility of doing anything.

Though it is late, still there is

LOSS OF SON

Claim By Mother

COMPENSATION ALLOWED

FOR the loss of her son, Edward, in a fatal collision near Patrickswell early in May, Mrs. Mary Boland, Patrickswell, was yesterday awarded £250 damages by Judge Barra O Briain in the Limerick Circuit Court.

Respondents to the action, brought under the Workmen's Compensation Act, were the Irish Assurance Coy., in whose employment, as collector, young Boland was when he met his death.

Mr. William Binchy, B.L. (instructed by Mr. D. J. O'Malley, solr.) for Mrs. Boland said the only point at issue was the matter of dependency. If it were held that the mother was totally dependent she would be entitled to £300. This was disputed, however, and he had to call the applicant on the question of her dependence. The applicant's son, he said, while cycling near Patrickswell, collided with a motor car and sustained a fractured skull which proved fatal.

Mrs. Mary Boland (65), mother of the late Edward Boland, said her husband died in 1937 from which time she and her sons, Edward and Thomas, lived together at Patrickswell. Edward went to work for the New Ireland Assurance Company last January at a weekly wage of £4 7s. 6d., all of which he gave to her. The maintenance of Edward cost her about 30s. a week and she gave him varying sums of pocket money. On the other hand he rendered her considerable assistance on her 16 acre farm at Faha, and in the milking of her three cows, one of which she was forced to sell since his death.

After hearing a submission by Mr. Kenny to the effect that the applicant was only partially dependent on the deceased son, the Judge held the partial dependency margin was very narrow and gave a decree for £250, as stated.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

The Muintir na Tire Summer School for Girls will open at the Presentation Convent, Dundrum, Co. Tipperary, on Thursday, 23rd June, for ten days, including Monday, 4th July. Whilst no announcement has yet been made as to who will officially open the series of courses

Not ter

rights" that
ng in the region
well as heavy
ching the head,
with a world title
cock is now sup-
n't have needed
did Bruce, had
er in his punch-

instance, imag-
Joe Louis, Sam
ges Carpentier
nent lighter by
lf "devastating
y as did Wood-
their rivals last

er went the dis-
s it was his de-
he world cham-
ot try to swop
as did Mills
a rule in box-
happens other-
an relies on de-
kill to counter
avier rival, but
his only hope
ck-out—because ot a boxer.

MEETING

at of Joe Louis
nger any out-
ts in the world Woodcock gets Lee Savold for ondon on Sep-
be meeting—a
his own size,
t a lot harder
accurately than

to hit, or at
ght for a world
ad when Bruce
o the jaw from
he is going to
dly stiffer than
to hand over.
s that so many
ks are apt to avold has put
was adjudged a
was some doubt

think Wood-
Mills qualifies fight. I think it would be