

...showings a change was certainly desirable, and, therefore, I think the selection of the ex-Dun-

THOSE "TERRIFIC RIGHTS"
In the radio story of the fight we

There is a famine in world class heavies, and now is the time to get in when the going's good.

Catholic Literature
tute themselves
at least form a
the members.
their aims almo
plan of the S splendid premis
redeem our sho
THE

FAILED TO PAY GOT CREDIT BY FALSE PRETENCES

A YOUNG man who went into digs on the understanding that he was to pay two guineas a week, but failed to do so, was defendant in a charge of wilfully and unlawfully obtaining credit by false pretences to the amount mentioned from Bridget Anslow, Clare Street, Limerick, in the Limerick City District Court to-day, before Justice D. F. Gleeson.

Supt. P. Collieran prosecuted, and the accused was not professionally represented.

Bridget Anslow said that she remembered the defendant coming to her house on the 28th March looking for digs. He agreed to pay £2 2s. a week. After she had asked for some money in advance he told her that there was some salary due to him. The defendant further said to witness that he was working with Lanigan Bros., but it was discovered that that was not true. He stayed in witness's house until the 1st April, when he left the place and never came back. He owed two guineas.

Replying to the Justice, the defendant said he went to Mr. Lanigan at Sadlier's Hotel looking for work. He had not the two guineas on him, but there was some money due to him from his previous employer, as a result of services rendered.

Sergt. Farran gave evidence of taking a statement from the accused who was a native of Abbeydorney, and previously worked for a man named Goodcliffe, Patrickswell, who still owed him money and that matter was in the hands of Mr. Fleming, solicitor, Charleville. When he got that money, he would discharge his liability to Miss Anslow.

The defendant told the Justice that he would pay the money to Miss Anslow in a week or a fortnight hence.

The Superintendent said that the defendant was before the Court in Listowel on a similar charge.

The Justice imposed a suspensory sentence of one month, the warrant not to issue if the defendant paid the two guineas within fourteen days.

ALIVE IN LIME-KILN

DOG MISSING FOR 21 DAYS

After being missing for twenty-one days, a five years-old cocker dog was found still alive in a disused lime-kiln at Newbridge, Rathkeale (writes our Rathkeale correspondent). Rubbish thrown into the kiln had formed a floor a long way down and a circular track cut into this floor indicated how the dog had been walking round and round in the hope of finding a way out. He is blind in one eye and it is thought he fell into the kiln when chasing rabbits. A passer by, who heard a feeble bark, came to his assistance. When rescued he was little more than a skeleton but regained his strength

DIED IN NEW YORK ESTEEMED WEST LIMERICK MAN

Jeremiah O'Donovan, an old and respected citizen of the Borough of Richmond, New York City, died at his residence, 22 Garretson Avenue, Staten Island, May 19th, after a long illness. He was the husband of Kitty Moylan O'Donovan, who survives him, as well as four sons and two daughters.

Jerry O'Donovan, as he was affectionately known to his many friends, was born in Grouse Lodge, in the parish of Kilcoleman, near Ardagh, Co. Limerick, about 80 years ago. He was the son of Joseph O'Donovan and Catherine Murray. He was the seventh of fourteen children, all of whom are dead with the exception of Mary (May), who resides in Dublin. His father was an extensive farmer and the family have lived for generations in the place where he was born. His mother also belonged to the well-known family of the Murrays, some of whom are living in Kilbrathran and Balliston, where they were extensive land owners.

The Nolans of Parkwater and Ballyanne, and Mrs. John P. Fitzgerald, of Kilacalla, in the parish of Glin, were near relatives. The Culhanes of Ballyneety—Patrick, the late Peter, who was his close pal in New York for years, and Margaret (Madge), who died two years ago in Dublin—were near cousins. He took the death of Peter to heart very much and lived only two short years after Peter passed away.

His wife, Kitty Moylan, belongs to an old and respected family in Newcastle West, being connected by blood and marriage with the most prominent people of that place.

A Solemn Requiem Mass was offered for the happy repose of his soul in the Church of St. Ann, Staten Island, and his body was interred in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Jerry O'Donovan was a good Irishman and took an active interest in Irish affairs. He was a member of the Shamrock Club of the Clan-na-Gael for many years, and believed in the absolute independence of his native land from English rule.

He was held in high esteem by his friends, who were legion, as was attested by the number who attended his wake and funeral. He will be missed by every one who knew him and his geniality and pleasantness and fine sense of humour were his many acquisitions that endeared him to everyone who knew him. May his immortal soul rest in peace.

JOHN J. SHEAHAN.
New York, May 31st, 1949.

MOST DANGEROUS THREE CYCLING ABREAST

The valuable Road Traffic Regulation, which outlawed cycling three abreast on public roads was more honoured in the breach than in the observance, said Justice Dermot F. Gleeson when at the Limerick District Court a Castleconnell,

LAWN TENNIS GAMES AT ENNIS

The Open American Tennis Tournament, which attracted competitors from Clare, Tipperary and Limerick, was concluded at the Fergus Lawn Tennis Grounds at Ennis on Sunday evening. Results:—

Section Winners in Mixed Doubles—Mr. M. Casey and Miss G. O'Connor, Mr. G. Enright and Miss P. Grealish, Mr. B. McMahon and Miss J. Caddell, Mr. R. Counihan and Miss I. Hickey.

Semi-Finals—Mr. Casey and Miss O'Connor beat Mr. G. Enright and Miss Grealish; Mr. McMahon and Miss Caddell beat Mr. Counihan and Miss Hickey.

Final—Mr. Brian McMahon (Ennis) and Miss Caddell (Nenagh) beat Mr. Casey and Miss O'Connor (Ennis).

The prizes were presented to the winners by Mr. G. Ryan, President of the Club, who paid a high tribute to Mr. M. Sullivan, Hon. Secretary of the Club, for the efficient arrangements made for the running of the tournament and the enjoyment of the visiting players.

ADARE GOLF CLUB

THE SUMMER MEETING

The summer meeting of the Adare Manor Golf Club was held on Thursday and Friday, 2nd and 3rd instant. Weather conditions were not very suitable; nevertheless, this meeting attracted a large number of entries and some very good scores were achieved. Results:—

The Abbey Challenge Cup—Mr. J. Hogan, 60 nett.

The Aspirants' Cup—Dr. P. J. McMahon, 63 nett.

The Ladies Cup—Miss W. O'Shaughnessy, 64 nett.

Mixed Foursome Competition—Dr. and Mrs. Hartigan, 3 up.

Ladies' Eclectic Competition—Mrs. P. Wallace, 29½.

Gentlemen's Eclectic Competition—Mr. S. Hogan, 29½.

Ladies' Bogey Prize—Mrs. P. Wallace, 6 up.

Gentlemen's Bogey Prize—Mr. S. Hogan, 7 up.

At the conclusion of the meeting the prizes were presented to the successful competitors by the Lady Olein Wyndham Quin.

THE PIONEER RALLY

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Sir—I would like, through the courtesy of your paper, to remind Pioneers and Probationers throughout the country that the arrangements being made by the transport companies for the Golden Jubilee Celebrations on June 26th are nearing completion. These arrangements are being based on the information already furnished as to the numbers travelling from each district. Centres all over the country have done their utmost to supply accurate figures. If there are still any members intending to travel, who have not yet contacted a local Pioneer Centre, I would appeal to them to do so at once and thus avoid a last-minute disappointment.

The rules of t rigid. The pri membership is munion. They but I think this imperative.
If the suggesti
any approval
members of thi
tution in the ci
have their view
taken at once,
branch to meet
gates to the ce
from other place
sure that once members would
In conclusion,
emphatically—w
men take up t
this Society mus

So
OUT
SUPP

