

"PARISH"

Writing us in reference to the recent C.Y.M.S. celebrations in Limerick, Mr. Thomas Rowley, Dublin, a prominent member of the National Council of the C.Y.M.S., says:

"The celebrations were very good and the people of the Parish deserve great credit for the way they decorated their homes and the streets. I felt as if I would have liked to go round them all individually to thank them. We know, however, they do not ask thanks. Father O'Brien was one of themselves, and they were honouring his memory."

During the recent warm weather the life of a young girl was saved by the prompt action of three soldiers of the 12th Battalion, Sarsfield Barracks, Limerick.

The girl, aged about 12 years, got into difficulties in the river some distance from the new pool. On hearing the cry for help, Privates Mannix and Noone, who were on their way to the Swimming Pool, dived in and succeeded in bringing the girl safely to the river bank.

Private Joyce, who was also present, applied artificial respiration, which was successful.
