most dis- "Arizona," with Jean Arthur, Warner Bros' William Holden Warren William and a cast of thousands.

Thursday's "Texas" is another big picture with William Holden, Claire Trevor, Glenn Ford, George Bancroft and Edgar Buchanan.

These two films are superb examples of the type of Westerns which were made on a lavish scale some years ago.

★ CARLTON—"Circus Boy" features James Kenny and Florence Stephenson. Originally intended for child audiences, it was found that it also had a good deal of adult appeal.

Supporting feature is the thrill-packed "Vigilantes Return."

Thursday's "Flight to Nowhere," an aviation drama, has Alan Curtis, Evelyn Ankers and Jack Holt.

The support, "Behind the Door," completes an interesting double-feature programme.

★ LYRIC—Manager John R. Bools has decided to retain the current attraction here, "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty," for three days of next week. Filmed in Technicolor, it stars the world-famous entertainer Danny Kaye. Songs, music and spectacle abound in this superb entertainment in which Virginia Mayo, Boris Karloff and the Goldwyn Girls appear.

★ The managements of the Coliseum, Thomond and Tivoli have booked several important second run films for the coming week. Full previews of all the cinemas will be resumed next week.

SOCCER FINALS

WINS FOR "STAR" AND C.I.E.

Yesterday was a red-letter day for soccer enthusiasts locally. Both finals of the Cromer and North Munster Cups were decided, and the customary thrills and spills associated with knock-out competitions were prevalent.

At Shelbourne Park in the final of the North Munster Junior Cup, Star Rovers had a hard-fought win over John's Gate by 2-1. The "Gate" led at the interval by 1-0, but their rivals played exceptionally well.

EDWARD O'KELLY TESTIMONIAL

The recent sad and unexpected death, following a brief illness and at a comparatively early age, of the late Mr. Ned O'Kelly, Chemist, Kilmallock, has left his widow and large, young, helpless family bereft of their bread-winner and entirely unprovided for as to means. Recalling that in similar circumstances, when the fate that has now befallen himself in this respect, fell to the lot of others, the late Mr. O'Kelly had been always to the forefront during his life-time association with the town of Kilmallock in organising the relief of distress and providing for the future well-being and maintenance of the afflicted, a spontaneous and representative meeting of the people of Kilmallock and the surrounding districts, held at the People's Hall, Kilmallock, decided that steps should be taken to relieve the burden occasioned now by his own death and to make some provision to ensure against the future destitution of his helpless family until they were in a position to provide for themselves, and for this purpose it was also decided to open a Subscription List to a Testimonial Fund for the bereaved family.

In bringing the matter to your notice there is no need to recall to you the genial and kindly character of the late Mr. Ned O'Kelly and his many sterling qualities and unflinching courtesy and consideration in his dealings with the public during his many years as manager of his pharmaceutical business for Mr. Thomas J. Carroll, M.P.S.I., Kilmallock, and the Committee entrusted with the organising of the testimonial appeals to your generosity with every confidence on behalf of the public which he served and for the benefit of those bereaved and left unprovided for by his death.

Your subscription is, therefore, earnestly and respectfully solicited and will be gratefully received by any of the members of the Committee undermentioned, and on the closing of the Subscription Fund the list of subscribers will be published.
