My husband got kind of jealous and the row started. With an ash plant in his hand, Martin jumped off his cart, and gave me two belts across the shoulders. I had Guard Hayes swore that he found the defendant one night drunk and very disorderly in High Street. "These people are a regular nuisance," he said, "and practically every citizen in Limerick has some complaint to make against them." The Justice said he didn't think this defendant was as bad as the others. He would accordingly only fine him £2.

RECENT DEATHS

IN WEST LIMERICK AREA

The death occurred during the week-end of Mrs. Maria Monaghan, Churchtown, Newcastle West (writes our Newcastle West correspondent). Member of a highly esteemed and widely respected Kenmare (Kerry) family, deceased was mother of Mr. Patrick Monaghan, N.T., Athea; Miss May Monaghan, N.T., Kilfinny N.S., and Mr. Nicholas Monaghan, now resident in England, to whom, as well as to the other bereaved relatives, deep sympathy will be tendered. The late Mrs. Monaghan was a life-long and staunch supporter of the national movement. In 1918 she was bound to the peace for twelve months when charged by the Crown Forces arising out of incidents that followed the arrest and subsequent imprisonment of local I.R.A. Volunteers. All sections of the public were represented in the very large attendance which accompanied the remains to Churchtown Cemetery on Monday.

MRS. WOULFE, GLENBAWN

The death occurred recently of Mrs. James Woulfe, Glenbawn, Carrickerry (writes our Newcastle West correspondent). Deceased belonged to a highly esteemed and widely respected family in the district and her death has occasioned much regret amongst numerous relatives and a wide circle of friends. There was a large and representative attendance at the removal of the remains to Carrickerry Parish Church and also at the funeral to Athea Cemetery. The prayers at the graveside were recited by Rev. Father Beirne, C.C., Ballyhahill, and Rev. Father Wilmott, C.C., Ardagh.

VISITOR BY 'PLANE

LANDS AT BALLINGARRY

There was considerable excitement at Ballingarry on Thursday evening of last week when a 'plane was seen coming from Shannon direction and circling around the district and ever drawing closer to the little town (writes our Ballingarry correspondent). Eventually it came to land in a level eighteen acre field adjacent to the town and owned by Mr. Daniel Bowen.

The visitor was Mr. P. J. Duggan, of the Shannon Aero Club, Limerick, who piloted his 'plane from Coonagh Airfield and flew to Ballingarry to say "hallo" to his old friend, "Smilin' Bill" Mahoney, and his wife, who are at present home on holiday from Chicago. "Smilin' Bill" introduced Mr. Duggan to the large crowd present. After being entertained to enjoyable tea by Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney, Mr. Duggan flew back to Limerick. He received a hearty send off from the large crowd present.
