LATE MRS. JOHNSTONE, COURTMATRIX

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Catherine Johnstone (nee Watson), Courtmatrix, Rathkeale, which took place to the Cemetery, Church St., Rathkeale, on Friday, July 29th (writes our Rathkeale correspondent). Deceased was the wife of Mr. Bristowe Johnstone, a member of a family who, when owners of the one-time well-known Castlematrix Mills, occupied a prominent place in the business and social life of Rathkeale, and were held in high regard by all classes.

The burial service was read by the Rev. Mr. M. J. Talbot and Rev. Mr.
C. M. Stack.

Very sincere sympathy is extended to the husband in his bereavement.

GOLF AT CHARLEVILLE

Messrs. M. D. O'Sullivan, N.T., and P. T. Liston, Auctioneer, won the holiday week-end open Four Ball competition (bogey), at the Charleville Golf Course on Sunday last. There was a good entry, and competition was keen.

TUBERCULOSIS.

Limerick County Council has a Scheme under which the most modern treatment is provided for all forms of tuberculosis.

THIS TREATMENT IS COMPLETELY FREE.

THERE IS NO MEANS TEST.

1. An X-Ray or other suitable examination is yours for the asking.

2. While awaiting a bed in a sanatorium you will be treated at home.

3. At the Sanatorium, the Health Authority provides the best possible treatment at no cost to you. (The Health Authority will not, however, bear the cost of treatment undertaken outside the Scheme without its prior approval).

4. To those with small means the Health Authority pays cash allow-country before he got it.

To Mr. M. M. Power, solicitor for defendant: The firm filled up the consignment receipt, and the entry of 3 gallons was filled up by the firm. Witness was not there when the consignment receipt was filled in. They sold thousands of gallons of this and never got complaints.
They were 6 or 7 years at Finglas Bridge, Dublin. Witness was not a member of the firm. None of the Neill family are qualified chemists.
Witness was not there when the stuff was measured out. There could be no leakage from the drum.
He would disagree with Mr. Kelly if he said it was short. "We have never had a complaint as to quantity. I would know if such a complaint had been made."

At this stage Mr. Power asked to have a note taken in writing of witness's evidence.

The Justice agreed that Mr.
Power was entitled to ask for this to be done and granted the application, and the Clerk of the Court then took a note of portion of wit-ness's replies to Mr. Power.

Continuing, in reply to Mr. Power, witness said that he put down 3 gallons on the order form and the words drum and carriage extra appeared on the order form before defendant signed it. Mr. Armstrong was plaintiffs' chemist and witness did not know if he had been in Court proceedings before.

To Justice—There is a good strong cork put into the drum and it could not leak. If any of the stuff was taken out the cork would have to be interfered with.

THE DEFENCE.

The defendant, Daniel Kelly, in evidence, said he signed an order form for Mr. Neill. The best of his belief was that all that was on the order form was the three gallons and there was nothing about the tin and carriage. The goods came ap-
