... at the September meeting, or possibly before it, at a General Purposes Committee meeting. The members of the Council had, at previous meetings, been anxious to know if city butchers could be compelled to use the abattoir. This information was required before the building was started, because it was feared that if there were no compulsion, many of the butchers might not use the abattoir at all, thus defeating the purposes for which it was built.

Mr. M. B. O'Malley—But that was only a side issue, which I hope will not be allowed to delay the erection of the abattoir.

NO SIDE ISSUE.

Manager—But this is no side issue at all. If people don't use the abattoir you have a serious commitment on your hands in building it.

The Manager said the report asked for by Mr. Russell would be before the next meeting of the Council, when the entire matter could be again discussed.

HORSES FOR SLAUGHTER

Sixty horses for slaughter and human consumption in another country were bought at Ennis last week (writes our correspondent there). Prices, however, showed a sharp reduction on those prevailing at previous fairs. The top price last week for fat young horses was £20 as against a previous £30. Gaunt horses also destined for slaughter went as low as £12.

DEATH.

WALSH — August 10, at the Mater Misericordiae Hospital, Dublin, Thomas A. Walsh, B.A., late of 31 Wadellia Green, Ballymun Road, Dublin, and 4 Hibernian Villas, Thomondgate, Limerick. Remains will be removed by road to-day (Wednesday) to St. Munchin's Church, Limerick, arriving at the city boundary at 7 p.m. (approx.). Solemn High Mass will be offered at St. Munchin's at 11 a.m. on to-morrow (Thursday). Funeral immediately afterwards to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. Deeply and deservedly regretted by his sorrowing wife, son and a large circle of friends and relatives. R.I.P.

... could arrange a very interesting exhibition, he said, with the cooperation of the City Librarian.

Deputy Mayor—We have so little to display that I think we would be making an exhibition of ourselves by adopting that suggestion. We might, however, get Mr. Tom O'Sullivan, of the Old Limerick Society, to arrange an exhibition of old Limerick property.

DIFFICULTY IN CARRYING OUT.

The City Manager said the Council would have difficulty in carrying out Mr. Russell's suggestion at the moment because of the short notice, but particularly because Mr. R. Herbert, the City Librarian, was on his holidays at the moment.

Mr. Russell—In that case I withdraw my suggestion altogether.

Without further discussion the Council decided to attend the opening of Rural Week in their robes of office.

“TAN” MURDER
RECALLED BY RECENT
DEATH

The death of Mrs. Margaret D. Healy, of Abbeyfeale Hill, which occurred in her 78th year, was very much regretted by a large number of relatives and the public (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). She was wife of Mr. Daniel J. Healy, and mother of the Rev. John J. Healy, P.P., of St. Jerome's, El. Carito, California, and also of the late Jeremiah Healy, who was callously murdered by a Black and Tan, in September 1920. Jeremiah Healy, then a youth, was shot dead with his comrade, Patt. Harnett, as both were walking peacefully along the Killarney road in the evening.

There was a very large funeral accompanying the remains of Mrs. Healy to St. Mary's Church, Abbeyfeale, on Sunday, and also at the interment in St. Mary's Cemetery, on Monday 8th August. Many expressions of sympathy were tendered to her bereaved husband and family.

Prayers at the graveside were read by the Very Rev. P. Canon Carroll, P.P. V.F. ; Rev. J. Liston, C.C. ; Rev. Fr. Colbert, C.C. ; Very Rev. R. A. Harnett, C.S.Sp., and Very Rev. C. Daly, C.S.Sp., Dublin.
